THREE-MAN COUNCIL HAS BRIEF MEET

his study of the law indicated that this discrimination was most evident in its phrases. City Attorney C. T. Rippey will be asked for an opinion at the next meeting and if such an error exists the law may be amended to allow property owners to install their trailers on their land.

AUTHORIZE FUNDS TO MEET BILLS

On motion of Councilman Deininger, the council authorized the following allocations: $50 from the advertising fund for the Chamber of Commerce; $500 from the same fund for the purchase of new uniforms for the Torrance Municipal Band; $100 from the advertising fund for payment to Louis F. Burke for legal services, and $150 from the general fund for the improvement of the pavement and curb at the Walteria fire station.

NEW WATER PUMP SAID SATISFACTORY

"The new booster pump to send water up to the high tower pressure tank which we recently purchased, began operating at 5 o'clock this morning and so far is performing satisfactorily," Councilman Deininger reported.

GRANT CONTRACTOR TIME EXTENSION

An extension of 10 days to complete construction of the new Civic Administration building, a PWA project, was granted Eiser Wickholm, L.L. contractors for the structure. It was explained that the job was delayed to investigate the plastering and that it might not be finished by Sept. 28, the original date for its completion. The contractor to Oct. 7 to turn the building over to the city.

Holloway explained that Beck had a splendid war record, was the father of two young daughters and his wife was in the hospital. The license was granted gratis.

Walteria P.T.A. to Entertain Teachers

The first board meeting of the Walteria P. T. A. was held yesterday afternoon at the school with Mrs. Elsie Minor, president, in charge. Plans for the coming year were outlined and a reception for the teachers was arranged for Wednesday evening, Sept. 22, starting at 7:30 o'clock. All parents are requested to attend this affair.

Stripped Car Found In Walteria Area

An abandoned Ford roadster, stripped of its license plates, wheels, tires and all accessories, was located north of Highway 101 near Madison street Tuesday. Police ordered the machine towed to W. K. Adolph's garage to await location of the owner.

has stated he would not keep up the payments, according to the affidavit. Mrs. Daggert alleged her former husband has been employed regularly in radio work and she believes he is earning in excess of $100 a week and is well able to support the boy. At the time they were divorced in November, 1933, Mrs. Daggert was given custody of the boy.

New Assistant Librarian Here

Miss Kathleen Goss, who has been assistant librarian here for the past year or so, has been transferred to the Huntington Park library, according to Mrs. Dorothy Jamieson, Torrance librarian. She has been succeeded by Miss Dorothea Hilton of Claremont, a graduate of the Riverside library school. Miss Hilton has moved to Torrance.

Former Wife Claims 'Uncle John' Lags In Son's Support

Old-timers here who remember when he was sales manager for the Dominguez Land Company and as such brought a great many residents to this city took keen interest in the charges that the one-time "Uncle John" of radio fame was $1,150 in arrears in his payments for the support of his eight-year-old son.

The accusations were made by his attractive former wife, Marguerite Daggert, in an affidavit in which she asked that he be cited for contempt of court. It was reported that Daggert
