SPORT SHOTS

But they are not immune yet from fumble-itis.

If they insist on calling fumble formations against California Saturdays at Berkeley, the Golden Bears may return that 73 to 0 crusher that S. C. gave them a few years ago. If the Trojans can hang onto the ball and 95-Percent-of-Team Shindler can last the entire game, the Trojans may shoot the Big Bear.

The same applies to the Torrance Tartars. For the past 13 years that this fan has watched the local boys play, they have used fumble formations far too many times. Roy Cochran's team in the three practice games this season have called the old fumble play on several occasions. Maybe if the boys used a bushel basket for a ball in practice they could learn to hold onto a pigskin oval in the game.

Connors in S. F.; Meet Jim Farley

Postmaster and Mrs. Earl Conner are in San Francisco attending the convention of the National Postmasters' association. They met Postmaster General James A. Farley and Saturday will attend the U. S. C.-California game at Berkeley. The Connors are expected to return home Sunday.

Paying Off College Election Bet

Perry Vermillion, pretty University of Oregon co-ed, is shown being taken for a wheelbarrow ride down the main street of Eugene, Ore., with Bob DeArmond supplying the motive power. The two made a bet that their teams of girls and men, respectively, would sell the greatest number of student body tickets. The girls won.

SHOP TALK

Mash on which the champs were exclusively stuffed from chick-hood to henhood. As a matter of fact, Leader Mash has been all they've ever had, speaks volumes for the "Single Dieters." How would YOU like to live only on caviar, for example, or hummingbird wings, or breast of peacock, or champagne? (I WOULD like to try it once!)

Notwith, congrats to Wilbur and T. S. Lovelady. The latter, I am told, intends to give up the poultry business very soon, concentrate his energy on feeds, grains, hay, coal, fire wood, etc. He will, however, still keep live rabbits, dressed to order.

Marauders Bore Way Into Local Packing Plant

Using crowbars to gain entrance to the building thru the floor, marauders have broken into the lettuce-packing plant of the Vernon Packing company in the rear of the International Derrick and Equipment company's office building during the past week, according to reports given police here. Nothing was taken each time, however.
