Catholic Church Will Observe Three Feasts

Special services and exposition of the Blessed Sacrament all day will mark the observance of the Feast of Christ the King at the Catholic Church of the Nativity here next Sunday, according to Rev. Father Joseph V. Fitzgerald.

"Each of us should try and enroll ourselves under the banner of the Kingship of Christ," the local priest said. On Monday the Feast of All Saints, a holy day of obligation, will be observed with Masses at 6 and 8 a. m.

The Feast of All Souls will be celebrated next Tuesday, Nov. 2. Father Fitzgerald pointed out that "this is a day on which all should remember our beloved dead and quoted the Scripture: 'It is a holy and a wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins.'"

Civic Leaders at L. A. Meet

The state-wide meeting of the California Chamber of Commerce today and tomorrow at the Los Angeles Biltmore hotel is engaging the attention of a number of local civic and industrial leaders. Among those attending the sessions today were President E. M. Barber of the Chamber of Commerce, Secretary L. J. Gilmeister and Director DeKalb Spaulin. Other plant officials are also participating in the group conferences on many subjects of interest to industrialists.

A very enjoyable time was had by all who attended the Victory Dance held in the Civic Auditorium Friday evening. Although the title "Victory Dance" was somewhat out of order for either school, not much attention was paid to this slight discrepancy. Students from Torrance, San Pedro, Wilmington and Los Angeles were present and two of Torrance's younger set (Tommy Wilkes and Marcella Crook) won the major swing contest.

Friday night another dance will be held in the form of a Halloween affair. The price is only 10 cents. There will be plenty of punch so if we win

Game May Be Announced . . . With the cooperation of students we may have our Tartan-San Pedro football game announced over KMPR at 6 P. M. Friday. In 1934 when Torrance won its first football championship and also beat Maroon for the first time that game was re-created on the air.

Dancers Through Aud . . . A very enjoyable time was had by all who attended the Victory Dance held in the Civic Auditorium Friday evening. TORRANCE HIGH LIGHTS . . . by Carl Gilbert

School Spirit Soars . . . Last Thursday night at the city park a pep rally was held to get the spirit of football season. The night was filled with lots of excitement, yelling and carousing between Lomita, Redondo and Torrance. Coach Ray Cochran gave a talk on school spirit and taught the students a new song, "The Old Torrance Spirit."

Short talks were given by Jack Kent, who gave the scores on past games. Bob Trezise wished the varsity luck and your correspondent spoke. After the meeting the students boarded cars and traveled to the surrounding cities.

A great deal of credit should be given to Ralph Gilbert, who had charge of the rally. Ralph handled the students very well. Credit should also go to West-on Leech, Peggy Wood and Midge Higgins. During the day an aud call was held for the purpose of a rally. Short talks were given by Leonard Harris, Bill Stewart and Miss Irene Mills.

New Crossing Lanes . . . New crossing lanes have been painted in most convenient places for the students to cross in. These lanes are at the corners of Carson and Manuel, Carson, Post and Cota. Principal Thomas Elson stated that these lanes are put there for students' safety and for the students' to use them. City officials felt that safety zones at these points were necessary. Remember the old saying: "It's better to be safe than sorry."

Essay Contest Announced . . . It was recently announced by the International Printing Ink Corp. that they would sponsor the second annual essay contest. This contest is open to those under 21 and students must be registered in high school, college, university, grammar school or junior high school students below the ninth grade are not eligible. Students will be grouped according to their grade.

Prizes consist of a $400 scholarship to Carnegie Tech plus a job at I. P. I., a trip to New York with all expenses paid and a $50 job printing press.

Senior Class Meets . . . Wednesday morning the Senior A's met to discuss graduation problems and announcements. It was still undecided when the class broke up whether they would wear caps and gowns for graduation.
