

Riis Advances Thru Tartars 7-0 Toward L. A. Prep Title Friday

LOCAL SQUAD LACKS FIRE IN CHANCE FOR CROWN

After battling Riis high's Vikings to a standstill in the first half, the Torrance Tartars bogged down and lost their opportunity to compete with scintillating local fame by competing with Eagle Rock for the minor Los Angeles city high school championship. The Viking invaders walked away with the playoffs tilt, 7 to 0—scoring their points in the third quarter.

The fire and zip that blew the Tartars into the Marine League championship was missing. There were only a few flashes of the fighting spirit that marked the Narbonne or San Pedro game in the playoff engagement that was witnessed by a small crowd of about 600 fans. After a wild scramble for the ball that bounced and rolled over a wide swath of the gridiron in the third quarter following Kenneth Perkin's blocked kick, Riis settled down to a goalward march. A Torrance fumble on the Tartars' 31-yard line started the Viking drive. Perdue and Reynolds alternated in carrying the ball to the Torrance 2-yard stripe and four downs to go. Perdue cracked the line to the one-foot mark and then went over for the only score of the day. Friday converted.

Line Tackles Spotlight
For the remainder of that period and the final quarter, Riis managed to keep the Tartars bottled up. Torrance was working hard but lacked something that had fired them up in the previous games and so it was a rather colorless affair.

Gerald Grubb proved he was more than entitled to the All-City team honor by his work on the line. In fact, the Tartar forward walk took the spotlight from the backfield, whose members frequently piled up on one another as the ball carrier was blocked by his own interference. Marvin Goettsch, whose "right-angled" runs electrified logical fans in League games, was only able to reel off a couple of short dashes.

Kenneth Perkin's trained toe was a big factor in keeping the Riis Vikings from more scores. He booted better than 35 yards per kick during the afternoon. Capt. Ray Richhart at center was the keystone in the line and "Red" Slyer, inserted early in the game, managed to cover himself with glory by one splendid tackle.

Riis to Play Friday
Akige Shimatou, Tartar fullback, played the most consistent game of any in the backfield. He was working hard all afternoon and made more gains than in any previous Torrance encounter.

Riis displayed a well-balanced team with Edward Perdue, right half, producing most of the gains. Everett Riddle and Lester Friday were stalwarts in the backfield while Harold Reynolds and Harold Pielow, ends, contributed some shifty wing flights. Neither Torrance nor Riis tried

PUBLIC INVITED TO KIWANIS DINNER FOR TARTAR GRIDS

Annual Event Set for Dec. 19

In honor of the entire varsity squad of 80 boys, the Torrance Kiwanis club decided this week to open its "football dinner-program" for the Torrance high school Tartars to the public and all friends of the 1938 Marine League champions are cordially invited to attend the affair to be held Monday evening, Dec. 19, 6:30 o'clock at the First Christian church.

The Kiwanians' annual salute to the Torrance team was originally planned for next Monday night, Dec. 12, but because of many requests from parents and grid fans for an opportunity to join in the festivities, the club decided to set the football program ahead for one week.

Tickets, at 50 cents each, may be obtained at the high school, from President, Rex Connor, President-elect Dean Sears or Secretary Ed Brunner. Following the dinner in the church hall, located on El Dorado off Arlington avenue, a special program for the Tartars will be given. Reservations for the dinner will be closed Saturday, Dec. 17.

The program will consist of the presentation of the 30 boy-guests and their coach, Robert Barr, and screening of a series of football and other sports films by Lee Hansen, noted movie photographer who filmed the 1938 Olympic Games at Berlin.

Tartar Hoopsters Win First Game

A hard-fought practice basketball game between Coach Pete Zamperini's Torrance varsity and Washington high school quintet ended Tuesday night as the Tartars nosed out a 33 to 32 win. It was the first victory of the local squad this season. Bill Nagel made 16 of the Torrance tallies.

REVOLVER CLUB MEETS
A regular meeting of the Torrance Police Revolver club was held Tuesday night at the police station to transact routine business.

Graduation Will Reduce Tartars by Two-Thirds

Two-thirds of the Torrance high school football squad will be lost to Coach Robert Barr for the 1939 season because of graduation, a survey of the scholastic records of the 30 Tartars who turned out for practices and games this year showed this week.

Twenty are Seniors and Marvin Goettsch, backfield star, will be 19 years old and thus be over the present age-limit. That leaves Coach Barr with a nucleus of only 10 players around which to build his 1939 team.

Those who are expected to graduate are Akira Shimatou, fullback; Joe Miles, Frank Carr, John Gandsey and John Schwartz, tackles; Carl Hanni; Harry Slover and Gerald Grubb, guards; Ferruccio Rossi, Harold Trezise, Ed Dawson, Harry Lewis, Bill Ritchie and Jack Sheehan, ends; Ralph Gilbert, quarterback; Reggie Smith, Capt. Ray Richhart and Army Dowell, centers; Henry Pupkoff, and Bill Fulton, halfbacks.

MERCHANTS HOOP LEAGUE FORMING FOR '39 GAMES

Three more basketball teams are wanted to complete an eight-team Merchants League which will stage two games each Tuesday and Thursday night after the first of the year in the high school gymnasium.

The five teams already enrolled in the league are: National Supply, National Home Appliance, A. & P. Market, Gardena Firemen and quintets from Redondo Beach and San Pedro.

Practice games are now being held each Tuesday and Thursday nights, starting at 7 o'clock according to Johnny Parker, A. & P. meat department head, who is in charge of the formation of the league. Anyone who desires to play basketball or enter a team should see Parker or attend one of the regular practices.

Church Group to See Grid Movies

Men of the Episcopal church will hear an "Associated Sport-caster" and see moving pictures of football games tonight at a dinner to be served in the parish hall. Nine boys of the servers' guild will be guests of the men at tonight's dinner.

Banning Cagers Defeat Torrance

Coach Pete Zamperini's Torrance high school basketball team lost the opening game of the 1938-39 Marine League season last Thursday afternoon to Banning's Pilots, 44 to 26. The tilt, originally slated for Friday, was moved ahead because Zamperini's hoopsters wanted to cheer the Tartar football team in the Riis playoff game.

Bill Nagel, Torrance forward, led in scoring, getting 11 points. Pritchard paced Banning with 10.

Banning also won the Class B game, downing the Tartar lightweights 28 to 7. The lineups:
Banning (44) Torrance (28)
Sweddie (8) F Nagel (11)
Pritchard (10) F Yancey (5)
Schwab (8) C Lee
H. Clutter (2) G Bross (5)
W. Clutter (8) G Buckley (1)
