Easter Party Marks 7th Birthday of Marilyn Haarer

Hat boxes are interesting indeed, when comes the Easter season. A most novel castle built from a hat box furnished thrills galore for a bevy of little girls, who gathered at the Haarer home, 1217 Beech avenue, to help diminutive Miss Marilyn Ann celebrate her seventh birthday.

The castle, illuminated with electric lights, had doors opening all around and was filled with colored bunnies with others going in and out. The castle was placed in the center of the table, where party eatables were served. A birthday cake decorated in the Easter colors was cut by Miss Marilyn Ann. Favors were bunnies and tiny Easter baskets filled with candy eggs and suckers.

Games such as drawing Easter bunnies, pinning the tail on the donkey and an Easter egg hunt furnished diversion. In the party were Erlene Simonson, Betty Peterson, Jeanne Hammack, Janice Haarer, Dickie Turner, Joseph O'Toole, Norman Downing, Nancy Ann Whyte, Ann Gallimore, Donald Price, Patty Jo Moore, Helen Clark, Geraldine Arco, Freddie Bartlett, Billy Wernett, Beverly Wernett and Marilyn Ann.

Four Speakers Cite Need for Advanced Vocational Training

The need of a trade school as well as a junior college was discussed at the regular meeting of the Torrance high school P. T. A. meeting held Monday afternoon in the assembly hall. The program was in charge of Councilman George V. Powell, chairman of the fathers' forum.

Among those presented by Powell were: Roy Becker, member of the Los Angeles board of education; L. J. Gilmeister, secretary of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce; Thomas Elson, high school principal; and Grover C. Whyte, publisher of The Herald.

Crowded conditions at Frank Wiggins Trade School in Los Angeles were pointed out and it seemed to be the opinion of those present that a branch of this institution should be built in Torrance or some other location convenient to the harbor industrial area.

Mrs. Charles Woodcock presided at the P. T. A. meeting, where members of a nominating committee were elected as follows: Elson, Mmes. E. E. Banks, Ann MacDonnell, R. J. Rogers and Charles Prowten. This committee will meet prior to the regular meeting next month to make their report. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected at the April 10 meeting.

Miss Elizabeth Parks, vice principal of the school and first vice president and program chairman for the P. T. A., was presented with a life membership. This is the second life membership presented to high school P. T. A. members during the year. Credit for the purchase of these rightly belongs to the life membership chairman, Mrs. I. C. Rous, thru whose efforts the money was raised. A life membership purchased at $25 goes into a special fund to help some worthy student complete or further his education.
