Church Flower Decorator Praised

The Baptist church is most fortunate in having the services of Mrs. Effie Gilliam as decorator. Rev. C. Miles Northrup said this week. For more than six years she has excelled in her arrangement of flowers at the church. Kentucky, of beautiful women and fast horses fame, is her birthplace and her grace and vivacity are heritages from that Blue Grass state, friends assert.

Who Said Women Weren't Mechanically-Minded

Check of attendance at the elaborate Ford Building exhibit at the Golden Gate International Exposition shows that 44 percent of visitors are women. This is attributed to the "emancipation" of women in the last two decades by the automobile and time-saving home appliances. Here is shown one of the many separate exhibits in the Ford Building at which women are learning the fine points of car construction. Top—A. E. Gibbs, executive of the Columbia Overdrive Axle Company, a co-exhibitor, illustrating functions of the new axle. Bottom—M. F.
