INSIDE RED CHINA by Nym Wales: Nym Wales is the wife of Edgar Snow who gave us the first authentic picture of "inner China" activities when he wrote "Red Star Over China." But Nym Wales got the material for her book entirely on her own as a lone pilgrim relying on her own ingenuity and courage. Arriving at Sian, in the spring of 1937, when both Central government and local officials had received all and more visitations and publicity than desired, she out-witted their refusals and on the edge of the Oudas desert in Ynan district found her army of "hit-run-and-hit-again veterans" known now as Eighth Route Army.

THIRD CLASS TICKET TO HEAVEN by Helen Follett: That old dark land of the Black Forest has rarely been described with so much sympathy as in this book. The author's third class ticket takes you from Grimm's Fairy Tales to the actual Hinterzarten in the Black Forest. She lived among peasants in this land (walking thru the forests enchanted long before the writings of the Brothers Grimm) and heard from their lips stories of giants, dwarfs, mermaids, enchantments and the true heart of the land. The story is not a proper travel book nor yet a novel—call it a first class personal diary, a travel book and novel in one combined with sad and funny bits of comedy and tragedy.

FRONTIERS OF ENCHANTMENT by Wm. R. Leigh: This was literally written with a paint brush. Every page is flooded with vivid color. The indescribable color of an African sunset, gorgeous vistas of her grassy plains, her jagged misty mountains in early morning sunlight stand out in contrast to ferocious wild life. A new view of African veldt and jungle; that of a competent painter and draughtsman who accompanied an Akeley expedition to record African flora and fauna with brush and pencil. Full of adventure, well written, it is enhanced by many magnificent pen and ink drawings.

SUCH SWEET COMPULSION: Autobiography of Geraldine Farrar: Brilliant artist, delightful singer and fine actress, Geraldine

Pomona Fair Work Rushed

Entering the final lap, preparations for the 18th annual Los Angeles county fair in Pomona are being rushed to conclusion so that everything will be in readiness for the gala opening on Friday, Sept. 15. Again this year the fair will continue over a period of 17 days, closing Sunday, Oct. 1. A beautiful steel and concrete domestic, science building, a major project in the structural improvements this year, is practically finished. Erected at a cost of $100,000, this building will be given over entirely to household arts.

From early demands for space it is apparent that the 1938 record of over 30,000 individual entries will be equalled or passed this fall. Due to the influx of tourists attracted by the world's fair and the fact that the entire country has been made fair minded, the officials feel amply justified in predicting a larger attendance than ever. Last year 637,762 passed through the gates.

NO GREATER LOVE

Co-starred for the seventh time, Bette Davis and George Brent achieve their greatest triumph in "Dark Victory," the story of a love that won a victory over darkness and defeat. The drama opens at the Gardena theatre Sunday.

Farrar was one of the most vivid personalities that appeared on opera stage in our time. The personality is recaptured in these pages by some gift of expression or self-revelation. The detailed account of Miss Farrar's success abroad, in America, concert tours and work in films is not only interesting but important as a record of artistic life in the world only a few years ago, before both the world and artists' careers had so greatly changed. It is a picture of an era that no longer exists.

I MARRIED A VAGABOND by Mrs. Rachael Frank: The wife of the travel author Harry Frank who has "roamed" so far and wide, describes her life and adventures as a home maker and travel companion in far corners of the earth—West Indies, Japan, China, Scandinavia, France and England. In this account she is able to communicate her enthusiasm for traveling to the reader, and her side of the story of her journeys with the vagabond husband and five children make interesting and diverting reading.

Gardena Theatre Books Big Hits

Headed by Bing Crosby and Joan Blondell, one of the most capable casts ever found in a single picture was assembled for Universal's "East Side of Heaven," which opens at the Gardena theatre tonight.

Bing and Joan are co-starred in this film which features hit songs, romance and comedy against a strong human background. And they are surrounded by a galaxy of players who already are knocking at Hollywood's carefully guarded portals leading to stardom.

Aerial Adventure

Hailed as "1939's greatest screen adventure" by preview critics, Columbia's new Howard Hawks production "Only Angels Have Wings" starting Sunday at the Gardena theatre. Cary Grant and Jean Arthur, appearing together for the first time, are starred in the new film, said to be compounded of tropical romance and thrilling adventure in South America. The companion feature on the same program will be "Dark Victory," starring Bette Davis and George Brent.

ELECTRIC COOKING MEANS A COOL KITCHEN

An electric range is actually cool to the touch while the oven heat is on. That is because the oven is sealed completely and heavily insulated on all sides. Surface units, too, apply their heat directly to the bottom of the utensil; none escapes around the sides. Say goodbye to the discomfort and fatigue of working in a hot kitchen this summer. Ask your dealer now about low prices and terms.
