

Mrs. Robinson Heads Legion Auxiliary Unit at After-Dinner Ceremony Tuesday

Social life begins at five and it begins auspiciously according to the July issue of Good Housekeeping Magazine, if the young lady wears this party dress made of rows and rows of lace posed over a rayon satin slip. The slip comes in pink, blue or white and the dress is tied with a big bow to match the slip. The bow in her hair also matches. Underneath the dress are fine party undies, panties trimmed with lace and satin ribbons.

Colburn-Floyd Wedding Held Last Sunday

The Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints at Inglewood furnished the setting for one of the summer's loveliest weddings Sunday afternoon when Miss Margaret Floyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alfred Floyd, became the bride of Richard C. Colburn. The wedding ceremony was performed in the presence of more than 100 with the Bishop John Wilson officiating.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of white marquisette with embroidered basque, and sweetheart neckline. Her sleeves were short and her full plain skirt fell in a train. She wore a shoulder veil and carried a shower of gardenias and lilies-of-the-valley.

Her four sisters served as attendants. Miss Ethel Floyd, as maid of honor, was gowned in pink georgette and carried peach colored roses and sweet-peas. The bridesmaids, Helen and Charleen Floyd were gowned in blue and yellow georgette and carried bouquets of pink roses and sweetpeas and orchid asters and sweet-peas. Diminutive Betty June Floyd as the flower girl, was lovely in frock of shell pink. Wayne Kauffmann, cousin of the groom served as best man. Ushers were Willard Barnett and William Parks. Following the reception at the Floyd home, 1620 219th street, the couple left for a northern honeymoon. On their return they will reside at 1820 Andrea avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Colburn, both graduates of Torrance high school with the summer class of '34, are popular with the younger set of the city. Miss Floyd for the past few years been employed in the secretarial department of The National Supply company.

Colburn, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Colburn of 640 Sartori avenue, entered business with his father, later opening the Colburn Market at 1801 Cabrillo, which he has operated for the past four years.

Exchange of Gifts Marks End of Term for Mrs. Fan Wilkes

Mrs. Ella Robinson was installed as president of Bert S. Crossland Unit No. 170, American Legion Auxiliary in an impressive after-dinner ceremony held in the Legion hall on Carson street Tuesday evening. Mrs. Lucille Lewellen, past president of 19th District American Legion Auxiliary, assisted by the Maywood ritualistic and drill team, inducted the officers. Other officers included Maxine Smith, first vice-president; Merle Youngken, second vice-president; Roxie Sleeth, proxy for Lucille Lewellen as secretary; Selma Goddard, treasurer; Janet Woodington, chaplain; Caroline Collins, historian; Olivia Lee, sergeant-at-arms; Daisy Watson, Alma Smith, Agnes Babbitt and Eloda Barkdull, proxy for Clara Dunbar, executive board.

Mrs. Robinson accepted the gavel of authority from Fan Wilkes, who closed a successful year marked with outstanding achievement in all lines of service. In appreciation of her work, Mrs. Wilkes was presented with a jeweled past-president's pin from the unit and gifts from several of her officers.

Appointments Announced
Eloda Barkdull, retiring secretary, was presented with a gift from the unit and one from Mrs. Wilkes. The unit presented the incoming president with a lovely box of flowers and she in turn remembered her installing officer, Lucille Lewellen, with a gift.

Mrs. Maxine Smith presented the incoming president with dues of 37 members.

Mrs. Robinson made the following appointments for the year: Roxie Sleeth, parliamentarian; Maude Wakeley, marshal; Maxine Smith, membership; Merle Youngken, child-welfare; Olivia Lee, rehabilitation; Gertrude Ralston, community service; Ruth Saunders, education; Nona Kemp, national defense; Ethel Sears, Americanism; Bess Myers, national news; Marie Marsteller, sick and relief; Mable Williams, legislative; Alice Thompson, fiduc; Fan Wilkes, past president; party: Halls Dean, scrap book; and Eloda Barkdull, music.

At the meeting's close, Maxine Smith, entertainment chairman during the past year, presented the following entertainers: Geraldine Bernhart of Colorado, in bird imitations; Phyllis Campbell and Thelma Hawk, Hawaiian selections on steel guitars, and Bob Sleeth, tenor soloist with Mrs. Smith playing the piano accompaniment.

The banquet, which preceded the installation ceremony, was served by Job's Daughters and prepared by the Job's Daughters' Mothers club, Mrs. Dorothy Prince in charge.
