Old Resident Of Lomita Dies

Word has been received in Lomita from Rev. James H. Larson of Painesville, Ohio, that he will arrive shortly to take charge of the affairs of his brother, Rutherford Larson, who recently passed away suddenly at Hermosa Beach of a heart attack.

Rutherford Larson was well known in Lomita where for many years he resided on South Oak street. On this property he established the first avocado grove to be successfully cultivated in this section.

Softball Game at Park Wednesday

Next Wednesday night, Sept. 6, the baseball team sponsored by the Torrance police and firemen will meet a team backed by the Gardena police in a softball game under the lights at Torrance city park.

The Gardena boys have won their last 24 starts. Torrance has won eight out of 12 games.

The Torrance police department invites the softball fans to come out and watch these young potential stars do their stuff. Game called at 7:30. Admission free.

burial took place in Artesia cemetery.

HENRIETTA MOWRY

one of the best-loved teachers of Fern Avenue school, passed away at her home, 1635 Amador avenue at 8:45 a. m. Tuesday, Aug. 29, as result of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Her condition improved for a time and hopes were entertained for her recovery, but following a stroke suffered a few days ago there was a rapid decline and death followed.

Miss Mowry was born in Illinois, Nov. 4, 1880. When she had completed her education she became a teacher, a profession she followed for 40 years.

When the Fern Avenue school was established about ten years ago she was transferred to that institution and remained there until her failing health compelled her to leave the work she loved.

Miss Mowry is survived by three brothers, Guy L. Mowry of Palos Verdes Estates, John H. Mowry of New York, and Christopher Mowry of Vicksburg, Michigan; one sister, Mrs. Floy Bogart, of Wixom, Michigan.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the First Methodist church, Torrance, California, by Rev. B. C. Brewster with charge of the service, with Mrs. Phyllis Hamilton and Mrs. Helen Pasnacht as soloists, Mrs. Finley, accompanist. Interment will be made at Inglewood Park cemetery.

Spectacular Plymouth Preview Is Real Thrill For Local Men

By RAY BROOKS

All lights suddenly went out. A half dozen sharp, ear-ringing explosions rocked the air. A puff of smoke billowed ceilingward. The band struck a crashing chord, the curtains parted... and there, on a huge white canvas appeared an enormous red firecracker and the words, "It's Hotter Than a Firecracker - PLUCKY MOUTH for 1940!"

Such was the dramatic manner in which almost a thousand costless, cigar-smoking Plymouth dealers and salesmen were introduced to the Plymouth line for the coming year. The meeting, a yearly get-together when the new models are put on the market, was held in the Gold Room of the Los Angeles Biltmore hotel last Saturday morning.

Local Plymouth dealer Allen Paul attended and had as guests Salesmen Ronal Howard, Jack Murray and P. B. Clayton; Mortician Hugh Sherkey and the writer.

New Line Hot

Following the noisy introduction, speeches were made by factory representatives, movies were shown of Plymouth progress since Walter Chrysler first put Plymouth on the market in 1928... the theme being that although Chrysler built a fine Plymouth twelve years ago, the 1940 line is so far ahead of its predecessors that there is hardly any comparison.

Truly, the new models are "hot." Streamlining has been carried further than ever before, producing a really smart automobile. Front fenders are higher, fit more snugly into the hood. Shape of radiator has been changed, while the back end has smoother lines, is more streamlined than ever. Windows and windshield have been enlarged for greater vision, remote gear shift on steering wheel is
