

CLOTHES FOR NEEDY FOLK . . . Part of the full truck-load of used clothing, shoes and bedding which was lugged to the Grand theatre last Friday afternoon by more than 600 youngsters and later turned over to the Torrance Relief Society is shown above with some of the young donors. In return for their gifts, the children were treated to a free matinee and given ice cream bars. The party was arranged by The Herald with the assistance of the Grand's manager, Lou Reese.

Boys and girls of all ages, trudged into the Grand theatre last Friday afternoon bearing bundles, packages and boxes of used clothing which is now being re-conditioned and segregated by the Torrance Relief Society preparatory to distribution to local needy families. The youngsters, more than 600 of them to the consternation of Ray Brooks, Herald advertising manager, who had only contracted for 500 ice cream bars, were admitted to a gala "end-of-vacation" show for their gifts. Arranged by manager Lou Reese of the Grand theatre, the screen bill was a source of rowdy enjoyment to the kids because it consisted of cartoon comedies, short subjects and a feature of appealing interest to young people.

As the throng poured into the theatre, Herald man Brooks popped his eyes at their number and began wondering how he could distribute 500 ice cream bars among more than 600. Thinking he had solved the problem, he announced from the stage that "because of the large crowd, kids over 10 should wait until the younger ones had left the theatre before claiming their free ice cream."

Make Every Article Count
A prolonged and emphatic Bronx cheer greeted this remark. Brooks finally "made ends meet" by purchasing additional bars to cover the faces of all youngsters present. The huge pile of clothing collected in the theatre foyer completely filled Sam Levy's delivery truck when it was loaded for transportation to the home of Mrs. Janet Woodington at 2015 Arlington, where the Relief Society makes its headquarters.

"We sincerely thank The Herald and the Grand theatre for collecting such a big amount of clothing for us," Mrs. Woodington said later. "We were just about out of everything and the demand for clothing especially children's things is now increasing as the opening of school draws near. We shall make every article count and distribute the things among families whose need is known to us to be very great."

Three Scouts Assist
"That theatre party for the youngsters was a splendid thing for The Herald to arrange and the Grand theatre management deserves credit for assisting with the plans. The Torrance Relief Society is deeply appreciative of their cooperative benefit," Mrs. Woodington concluded. Managers Brooks and Reese were assisted in directing the theatre party by three Boy Scouts—Newton Sleeth, Edwin Smith and Jack Kemp. They did yeoman service in stacking up the bundles and boxes of clothing

1208 El Prado. Sunday morning services at 11. Sunday school, 9:30 Wednesday evening meeting, 8 p. m. Reading room in church edifice. "Substance" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday in all Churches of Christ, Scientist. The Golden Text is from John: "Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed." A Scriptural citation includes these verses about Jesus from Matthew: "And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward a hungered. And when the tempter came to him, he said: If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and all the glory of them; and saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. Then the devil leaveth him, and behold, angels came and ministered unto him." One of the passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, states: "The Science Jesus taught and lived must triumph over all earthly beliefs about life, substance, and intelligence, and the multitudinous errors growing from such beliefs."
