Torrance Hi News Notes by ELIZABETH FISH

Beginning the new school term Monday, Principal Thomas H. Elson gave a hearty welcome to all new and old students in the Assembly hall. He also called attention to the new Community College just starting this semester. Quite a few old students are coming back to make up the first class in this higher institution.

Miss Arlene Graber who returned home Sept. 9 from a summer of cycling through Holland and Germany, had a very exciting summer. Boarding ship in France, Sept. 4, she arrived at Montreal Sept. 9.

Coming across the Atlantic all portholes and windows of the ship were painted with dark paint to keep the vessel in darkness. Passengers were required to wear life belts at all times and she said they did not know about the Athenia's sinking until three days after it had happened.

Toymakers Give Preview of Their Home Work Here

A "preview" of the unique stuffed toys which Mrs. Dora Schmidt and Mrs. Dora Greb will display at the Factory Frolic's Hobby show was held yesterday afternoon at 2758 Carson street. Their toys have attracted considerable attention, especially from those who know the makers.

Mrs. Schmidt is blind so her hobby is stuffing the cloth covered animals and dolls to make them soft and cuddly. Mrs. Greb is lame so she designs, cuts out the material and sews it together. Many children have been made supremely happy by their joint efforts.

Spehger Suffers Minor Eye Injury

An old injury to his neck is believed the cause of a sudden rupture of a blood vessel in his right eye that forced Officer Spehger to turn over his "beat" last Thursday to Officer William Evans. Under treatment, the eye injury cleared up and he returned to duty the following afternoon.

Famed French Film Coming to Torrance

Not recommended for children under 16 years of age is the rather risqué French film, "Ecstasy," which is billed at the Torrance theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 17, 18 and 19. Glamorous Hedy Lamarr heads the list of French beauties but the dialogue is in English. The picture was barred from the United States for three years but has recently been admitted. Companion picture on the same program is "Career" starring Ann Shirley.
