My Thanksgiving

By MRS. FRANK T. PORTER
 1319 Arlington Avenue

Our Father, God--

Who spreadest out thy universe—
 Of planets, moons and stars and sun—
 For light and warmth; while time shall run;
 Made man to crown creation—not to curse—
 And gavest him dominion over all
 The earth and every living thing—
 My hands are empty. I can bring
 Thee naught but thanks—though I recall
 The past's and this day's skies and sun—
 Now filtering golden warmth to me—
 Through my lace dripping pepper tree;
 While morning's needful tasks are done.
 To thank Thee, God, for grace I share
 And peaceful rest throughout the night
 My heart would lovingly requite
 Some fragrant gift—that serves, and prayer.
 For everything that makes life sweet—
 My country, mountains, skies and seas—
 And home and food—In on my knees,
 Until Heaven makes earth's dreams complete.

Oven Meals for Busy Fall Days

What a help the oven is on busy fall days when there are so many tasks to engage the attention of the homemaker! A meal prepared entirely in the oven requires practically no watching, which is a distinct advantage to the homemaker because the food can be placed in the oven and forgotten until done.

An oven meal is planned in much the same way that other meals are—that is, it is planned around the meat dish. This is a nutritionally sound way of planning meals, and also it is an easy way to make sure that the flavors will blend. It is especially wise to plan the oven meal in this way because after the meat is chosen, you can plan the vegetables which go with it in flavor and which are cooked at the same temperature.

Here are suggestions for oven meal combinations, given by Inez S. Wilson, home economist. The entire main course may be cooked in the oven. This is supplemented with a salad, dessert and beverage, and sometimes the dessert, also, may be baked in the oven if desired.

Meat Loaf—Tomato Juice, Escalloped Potatoes, Baked Diced Carrots, Endive Salad, Brown Betty, and Coffee.
 Roast Leg of Lamb—Grapefruit Halves, Browned Potatoes, Escalloped Cauliflower, Perfection Salad, Ice Cream, Cake and Coffee.
 Escalloped Ham and Potatoes—Baked Onions, Shredded Cabbage and Green Pepper Salad, Hot Rolls, Date and Nut Pudding, and Coffee.
 Oven Pot-Roast—Orange Juice, Browned Potatoes, Green Beans, Combination Fresh Vegetable Salad, Steamed Chocolate Pudding, and Coffee.
 Roast Beef—Baked Potatoes, Escalloped Tomatoes, Blushing Pear Salad, Hot Rolls, Mocha Souffle, and Coffee.

and hear Freeman Lusk speak on "Our National Democracy — and How to Preserve It," and then witness some of Rev. Frank Porter's magic. Music by the Mothers' Chorus, and an interesting school program to be presented by members of Mrs. T. B. Williams' class will conclude the special features for the event.

Parents wishing to attend may leave their children in Room 2 of the school which will be converted into a nursery for the evening.

TORRANCE HIGH SCHOOL . . . Mesdames J. O. Bishop, I. C. Rous, William Jolley, H. R. Lee, E. C. Prime and Charles Woodcock represented this unit at the first regular session of the parliamentary law class last Friday morning at the Seventh Street school of San Pedro.

Dec. 4 will mark the combination P. T. A., and high school Christmas program. According to Mrs. Woodcock, P. T. A. president, no other regular sessions are calendared before that date.

Resignation of Mrs. William Jolley as secretary of Fern Avenue unit and unanimous election of Mrs. Fred Fisher to fill the vacancy on the executive staff of the association, highlighted the executive board meeting Tuesday, Nov. 14. Present were Mesdames A. C. Turner, Roy Meyers, Claude Pickett, John Hopper, Millie Andrews, Irene Davis, C. W. Stevens, Fred Fisher, J. J. Millard, W. C. Silence, John Garner, George Fisher, W. J. Bowers, Harry Pierson, Lillian Billups, L. F. Watson, Simpson, Ludwig and Steele.

Fern Avenue was represented in the first parliamentary law class conducted Friday morning at the Seventh Street school in San Pedro by Mrs. J. J. Millard and Mrs. George Fisher. Second meeting, to be held Wednesday, Nov. 23, will feature topics of interest to secretaries and financial officers, according to Mrs. Charles Ernest, state parliamentarian in charge of the session. Present at the Motion Picture and Radio conference held last Friday afternoon in the auditorium of a Los Angeles department store was Mrs. John Garner, radio chairman for the local group.

TORRANCE ELEMENTARY . . . "Recognizing Contagious Diseases" was the theme of this morning's well-attended class in home nursing held at Torrance Elementary school. The course, under the supervision and direction of Miss Hilda Humphries of Los Angeles, who is connected with the adult education department of the Los Angeles city schools, is open to all without charge from 9 to 11:30 o'clock each Tuesday morning. Mrs. H. E. Lee, president of Torrance Elementary P. T. A., urges attendance.

Magic, merry-making, fun and gaily galore will combine in the Elementary school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night, Nov. 28, to make "Father's Night" of the P. T. A., one of the most outstanding events on the social calendar for the year. All fathers are invited to attend.
