

New Market Celebrating Delayed Opening Here

OFFERS FINE FOODS... The well-stocked interior of Kimmel's Market, 1515 Cabrillo avenue, is shown in the above photo taken this week as the firm com-

Newest of all Torrance food markets is Kimmel's, David Kimmel proprietor. It occupies the large store building recently vacated by a Safeway store when the latter moved to its new quarters elsewhere in this city. The owner moved lock, stock and barrel, from the southern district of Los Angeles where he was in business for many years.

He says he abhors the principle of selling "cheap" foods and offers the highest quality meats, vegetables and groceries at competitive low prices. Well-stocked, well managed and attractively arranged, Kimmel's Market promises to play an important part in the life of this community.

This week Kimmel celebrates his official grand opening, having been forced to delay it for several weeks due to illness.

DeMolays Honor Parents Last Night at Dinner-Program

Members of the DeMolay Order were hosts to their mothers and fathers at a dinner-program in Daniels cafe. There were 52 present to enjoy the entertainment presented by Harry Lewis, master counsellor of the order. Rev. Frank Porter demonstrated his ability as a magician. John Batovsky gave several accordion numbers. David Clark entertained with readings and Ed Day, advisor of the local DeMolays, made a short talk.

Anybody Gotta Quackless Drake for a Veteran?

Anybody got an extra Muscovy drake that they would donate to a disabled veteran at the Sawtelle Military hospital.

This veteran, according to Mrs. Olivia Lee, hospitalization chairman for the local Legion Auxiliary, has several Muscovy ducks that he takes great interest in at the hospital.

But he has requested the gift of a drake of the quackless variety to keep his ducks company.

Mrs. Lee has tried and tried to find one for him but has so far been unsuccessful in her drake hunt. She would be glad to receive information as to where to get one. Her home address is 1923 Arlington and her phone is Torrance 393-J.

Noisy Auto Traps Thief ST. LOUIS (U.P.)—A broken exhaust pipe on the automobile of Thomas Davis foiled an attempt to steal the car. The peculiar sound made by the auto as it started awakened the owner. He notified the police, who recovered the car and captured the thief.

Harold Marshall Passes Away at L. B. Hospital

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Don Vorhis were shocked to learn of the sudden death of their beloved son-in-law, Harold F. Marshall on Dec. 29 of cerebral hemorrhage. He was ill only two days at a Long Beach hospital.

Leonard Vorhis, who arrived from San Francisco to be best man at his brother Norval's wedding Dec. 16, obtained an ex-pall-bearer at Mr. Marshall's funeral. Other pall-bearers were Norval Vorhis, Louie Parker, Jim Courtney, Jack Yelden and Wilbur Franklin.

Mr. Marshall was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marshall of San Pedro. His widow is reported suffering greatly from the shock of his untimely death.
