

Mrs. Jennie Lane Honored By Many on 85th Birthday

Mother of Local Teacher Feted at Los Angeles by Nearly 100 Guests

The 85th birthday of Mrs. Jennie Booth Lane was celebrated at a gala open house party at her home in Los Angeles Sunday when more than 90 called to offer felicitations. Mrs. Lane, who is the mother of Mrs. Sylvia Lane Nelson, teacher at Torrance Elementary school, is beloved by this community, having lived in Torrance for more than 10 years.

Born near Liverpool, England, she came to the United States at the age of four with her parents. They traveled from Iowa City, where the railroad ended, to Utah by covered wagon. The trip overland took four and a half months in the spring and summer of 1857. Following her marriage to James R. Lane in Utah she again trekked westward, covering the distance from Utah to Montana in a covered wagon.

Her children are Mrs. Sylvia Lane Nelson, Mrs. Roy Cauble of Cheyenne, Wyoming, Miss Vennie Lane and J. W. Lane of Forsyth, Montana and C. R. Lane of Los Angeles. Mrs. Lane came to Los Angeles for this occasion.

Remembered by Many Mrs. Lane received her guests dressed in black chiton velvet with white accessories and wore an emerald corsage. She was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, flowers, telegrams and messages from all over the southland. Among those present were groups from Torrance, Santa Ana, Alhambra, South Gate, Arcadia, Van Nuys, Hermosa Beach, Pasadena, Redondo Beach, Tacoma, Washington, and many Montana friends who are spending the winter in California.

Assisting as hostesses for the occasion were Mesdames Edward Cornwall and John Willis of Los Angeles and Charles Ward of Torrance.

Guests from Torrance were Mesdames T. T. Babbitt, Le Grande Barkdull, Helen Berry, W. C. Haydon, R. Ir. Lewellen, Bess Myers, J. R. Wilkes, Edythe Woodington and Janet Woodington, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Bradford and son Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Derouin, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fess, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Gallimore and daughter Ann, Mr. and Mrs. W. Rufus Page and son Edward, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ross and daughter Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward and Mr. and Mrs. George S. Wheaton.

FAREWELL LUNCHEON FOR MRS. BROOKS

Mrs. Dulcie Brooks was honored at a delightful farewell luncheon given for her by members of St. Cecilia Guild at their social hall last Wednesday. Red anemones, white sweet peas and blue cornflowers accentuated the Washington's Birthday motif used in the luncheon appointments. A personal gift, accompanied by a corsage of violets and a gift card bearing the names of the donors, was presented to Mrs. Brooks.

Mesdames Julia Cucci, Irene Hopkins and Mildred Haeder were the committee in charge of arrangements. Invitations to the luncheon were issued to the honoree and Mesdames Helen Mitchell, Mary Lou Barnes, Bess Paour, Emma Quaggin, Grace Rhore, Ethel Sears, Mina Shidler, Roxie Sleeth, Fan Wilkes, Helene Moore, Mabel Bishop, Fern Cheesman, Margaret Guttenfelder, Margaret Jones, Bettina Miller, Lillian Snow, Katherine Marshall, Minnie Brooks, Maude Deiminger, Zoe Dethiers, Marguerite Leasing, Harriet Leech, Victoria Murphy, Dorothy Post, Anna Sandstrom, Maxine Smith, Lucille Thompson, Florence Watson and Myra Beeman.
