Deceptive Berry Pack Costs Japanese $25

The first arrest of the strawberry season for deceptive packing was made this week by local police when they picked up Bozun Takata, 44-year-old Japanese farmer, on a warrant signed by county agricultural inspectors.

Takata plead guilty to the charge of packing his strawberry boxes lock like they were containing more of the luscious fruit than they actually did. He was fined $100, of which $75 was suspended for two years, by City Judge Robert Lessing.

Mayor-who-was-overlooked Gets Due Credit for Service

When a man has served as mayor of a city for one year and 13 days he should be given credit in any review of a community's official history.

This The Herald failed to do last week in reporting that Mayor Tom McGuire was the 10th local resident to assume that office. He really is the 11th and the mayor-who-was-overlooked is Robert J. Deininger, cashier at Torrance National bank.

He served as mayor for one year and 13 days from April 6, 1925 to April 19, 1926, succeeding R. R. Smith and being succeeded by the late John M. Dennis.

To keep its file on "Mayors Who and When" straight The Herald has had the following list approved from official records in the city clerk's office:

George A. Preston, 1921-22
J. M. Fitzhugh, 1922-23
Wallace H. Gilbert, 1923-24
R. R. Smith, 1924-25
Robert J. Deininger, 1925-26
John M. Dennis, 1926-32
William B. Klustman, 1932-33
Scott R. Ludlow, 1933-34
William H. Stringer, 1934-37
William H. Tolson, 1937-40
Tom McGuire, 1940-
