

District Scouts Hold Camporal

More than 150 members of five Torrance area Boy Scout troops enjoyed a district camporal at the Torrance city park last Saturday and Sunday. The troops vied for honors in uniforms, adequate bedding and shelter, cooking skill and completeness of mess gear.

Bathing suits that launder easily are on the "must" list for summer. May Good Housekeeping features a charming outfit in plaid seersucker. The crinkly cotton loves the water and launders with a minimum of effort. New and attractive are the matching bathing shoes. Worn with the suit is a knee-length white coat with revers of plaid seersucker.

Attic Trap Set for Rat, Housewife Catches Skunk

FORT WORTH, Tex. (U.P.)—Mrs. B. F. Cloud set a rat trap and caught a skunk, and for a few hours she wasn't sure her trapping was a success.

The housewife set the trap in the attic of her home, and ran upstairs with a broom to finish the job, when she heard a tell-tale commotion in the attic. The half-grown skunk was too much for a woman, however, and she called upon her grandson to dispatch the skunk with a rifle.

Beauty and You

by PATRICIA LINDSAY

The radiant beauty of youth such as DEANNA DURBIN has, is desired by all women and cherished by all men.

Health and Beauty Vastly Improved If Proper Posture Becomes Habitual

GOOD posture is a matter of the mind before that of the body, because before a person can truly do a thing well, he must desire to do it! But if a girl or woman determines to master good posture there isn't the slightest doubt that both her beauty and health will be vastly improved.

Good posture does not become habitual overnight. It takes constant awareness of your carriage, and time, and quite likely some discouragement. If you have been inviting poor posture for many years you cannot expect your spine to react instantly to the new and better dictations you have determined to give it.

First of all you must learn what "standing up straight" actually means. One of the most graphic and simple directions for good posture is given by a leading New York physician and I shall quote his words: "In the French army the recruits are given a coin to hold between their buttocks. This results in contraction of the very powerful muscles that hold the pelvis to the thighs. This pulls the back of the pelvis down. The abdominal muscles should then be contracted from the bottom up. You should conceive of your belly as a tube of tooth paste which you squeeze from the bottom in an effort to get the last bit of contents pushed up.

This contraction of the abdominal muscles pulls up the pelvis in front . . . so the spine comes nearer to the horizontal. In consequence, the curves of the upper spine straighten out, and it becomes as nearly straight as its anatomical structure will permit. Naturally this results in its lengthening.

This posture exercise should be practiced before a mirror, so that you may see yourself in the actual process of "standing tall." With practice you should be able to increase your height between one and two inches."

Once you have learned how to stand and walk in good position it is necessary that each day you practice exercise movements which are planned to strengthen the muscles which are attached to it in front and behind. These need not be complicated exercises—but to get the desired benefit from them you should do them regularly and in good rhythm. Jerky movements are not in tune with the rhythm of the body's mechanism.

Gets 14 Calls From One 25c Want Ad!

L. J. Hunter, 2035 24th street, Lomita, insurance and real estate broker and notary, rented a vacancy for one of his clients the first day he advertised. Said Hunter:

"Kill my rental ad. I received 14 calls and rented the property." His ad ran just one time at a cost of 25 cents. Here is just another instance of the value of Want Ads in our publications.

Perhaps the answer lies in that your little "two bit" Want Ad goes into every home in Torrance, Lomita, Waverly, Harbor City, Keystone, and many homes in the Shoestring Area, Rolling Hills, Moneta, Redondo, Gardena, Hollywood Riviera and contiguous territory.

This amazing coverage, for so small a price, makes possible your being able to advertise any commodity or service economically and profitably—just phone Betty Brown at Torrance 444, and let her help you word a form for sale, for exchange, swap, employment offered or wanted, or business card ad to get done quickly just exactly what you desire.

Penny Wise and Forgetful SAN DIEGO (U.P.)—An elderly man demonstrated the old axiom, "penny wise and pound foolish" here when he refused to make a 20-cent purchase after a drugstore clerk asked him for a cent sales tax. The angry man stalked out of the store and left a dollar on the counter.

Another County Board Member for Tax Slash

By elimination of non-essentials the county tax rate for the next fiscal year can be reduced, according to a public statement issued this week by Supervisor Gordon L. McDonough.

"The present county tax rate of $1.4973 can be reduced," McDonough declared. "Economies were effected last year and there is no reason why they cannot be effected this year as well. I will demand removal of all unnecessary items in the request budget submitted by the various county departments."

McDonough explained that this policy would be followed both in the general county budget and in the County Flood Control District and that this should set an example for other taxing bodies to act similarly and thus materially reduce the burden now borne by taxpayers.

McDonough is the second supervisor to go on record as declaring that the present county tax rate can be reduced for 1940-41. Chairman Roger Jessup made his "tax cut" statement last week.

Super Film Fan Keeps Notebook Over 14 Years

CANTON, O. (U.P.)—Howard Lang Scott, a super moviegoer, has seen an average of almost 10 motion pictures a week during the past three years.

Since 1924 he has listed in a huge notebook the full cast, his comments about each picture and all the roles played by several thousand actors in the last 14 years.

In the last three years, Scott has really concentrated on his hobby. He saw 483 feature pictures in 1936 and 482 in 1937.

His notebook revealed that many of the busiest actors are unknown by name to most movie fans. Scott said that Wade Boteler was the actor he had seen most frequently—in 145 shows.

Elizabeth Bergener is Scott's favorite actress. He has dedicated his favorite notebook to her.

He recommended that British actors stay at home because in this country, he said, they receive obscure and poorly fitted roles. Scott believed that the British produced better historical pictures than Hollywood.
