MRS. BUCKLEY TO ENTERTAIN CLUB

Members of the Friday Morning club will meet at the home of Mrs. L. B. Buckley tomorrow evening, June 11, for the final meeting of the year.

Parsons-Clark Rites Held in Garden

The beautiful gardens at the Lomita home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Hodges provided the setting for one of the season's prettiest weddings Sunday afternoon when Miss Hazel Clark became Mrs. William Flinton Parsons at a ceremony performed by Rev. F. C. Porter in the presence of 100 wedding guests.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Clark of 1731 Andrea avenue, was given in marriage by her father. She chose for the ceremony a gown of white mouseline de soie and finger tip veil with Juliet cap and orange blossoms and carried a Colonial bouquet of white gladiolus, bouvardia, gardenias and forget-me-nots.

Mrs. Mary Mitchell, sister of the groom, was matron of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore blue net over taffeta, a Juliet cap of tulle and carried a Colonial bouquet of Talisman roses, gladiolus and forget-me-nots.

On Motor Homeymoon

Frank Harwood Clark, Jr., brother of the bride, served as the bridegroom's best man. Music for the ceremony was provided by Mme. Teala Bellini at the piano and Mrs. Lacey Wells of San Pedro, violinist who were heard in several selections.

Following the wedding ceremony there was a reception for the bride and her bridesmaids at which Mrs. F. H. Clark, in dusty pink crepe and lace with gardenia corsage, Mrs. W. C. Parsons of Fresno, mother of the bridegroom, in dusty pink red-tinged ensemble with white accessories and wearing a gardenia corsage and Mrs. A. J. Hodges in pastel floral crepe with navy accessories assisted the bride in receiving.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Parsons left for a motor honeymoon in Northern California and upon their return they will make their home in Los Angeles. The bride is a graduate of Torrance high, class of 1928 and of the California College of Commerce. The groom who is a graduate of a university in Washington, D. C., is manager of a Western Auto Supply Company store on Beverly boulevard, Los Angeles.

SPINSTERS SPECIAL MEETING TUESDAY

A special meeting of the Spinsters club will be held Tuesday evening, June 18, at the home of Miss Dorothy Jensen, 1452 Encarnacion avenue. All members are urged to attend.

Treize-Sears Nuptials Seen by 200 Guests

One of the loveliest June brides was Miss Marion Francis Sears, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean L. Sears of 1428 El Prado, who became the bride of Robert Bryan Treize, son of Mrs. Irma Treize of 2019 Arlington avenue, Sunday afternoon. The ceremony at St. Andrew's Episcopal church, with Rev. Thomas R. Marshall officiating, was attended by 200 wedding guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a princess model of white slipper satin with long sleeves and train, the square necked yoke of the bodice embroidered in seed pearls. Her exquisite finger tip veil repeated the pearl detail in the coronet bandeau. She carried a white prayer book with corsage of mystery gardenias and stephanotis.

Her maid of honor was her sister, Miss Jeanne Sears, beautifully gowned in powder blue jersey. She carried peach colored sweet peas and Johanna Hill roses. The bridesmaids were her sister, Miss Phyllis Sears, wearing peach marquisette and carrying a shower bouquet of hybrid delphinium, her cousin, Miss Harolde Vaughan, of Seledad, California, in turquoise marquisette who carried yellow sweet peas and Souvenir roses, and Miss Shirley Johnson in delphinium blue marquisette carrying a shower bouquet of pink sweet peas, Briarcliff roses and delphinium. Little Donna Schulz of Redondo, the bridegroom's cousin, as flower girl wore a pink silk frock.

Proceeding the ceremony, Robert S. Stech, Jr., sang "O Promise Me" and "Because" accompanied at the organ by Mrs. F. L. Parks. John McFadden, a Loyola University classmate of the groom, served as best man and usher were Harold Treize, Clifford Treize, brothers of the groom, and J. R. Klink, Jr.

Reception Held at Hill

Following the church rites, Mrs. Dean L. Sears, gowned in periwinkle blue with cyclamen accessories and Mrs. Irma Treize in delphinium blue with rose accessories received with the bride.

Parish Hall was chosen as the setting for the reception where members of St. Cecilia's Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal church arranged the reception. A canopy of greenery, and garden flowers furnished a background for the candlelight tables at which Mesdames Fred Quaglin and Robert S. Stech poured.

They were assisted by Mesdames Frank Patour, Jr., Theodore Chessman, L. J. Deminger and D. A. Murphy members of the Guild and the Mesdames Jean Smith, Jean Kresse and Korena Carlin, members of the Spinsters. A beautiful three tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Treize left for a honeymoon at Coronado. After today they will be at home to their friends at the Mayfair Apartments.

GUILD SUSPENDS SESSIONS FOR SUMMER

Members of St. Cecilia's Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal church attended the regular meeting at the parish hall yesterday. A 12:30 potluck luncheon with Mrs. R. F. Lessing as hostess was followed by a business session conducted by the president, Mrs. Dean L. Sears.

Business meetings will be suspended until September but several social activities are being planned by the guild members.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Bretton, who have been visiting at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Babcock, left Saturday for Cheyenne, Wyo., and will stop at Boise, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller celebrated their 21st wedding anniversary yesterday.

Townsend Club Activities

As reported last Friday evening, success crowned the efforts of members who circulated the petitions for an initiative constitutional amendment to the California Old Age Pension Act which, if enacted into law, will remove many objections to the law and make it a permanent instead of being subject to change at any time. Only lack of time prevented securing many more signatures.

Reports from various committees and members were received with enthusiasm. A welcome visitor was John J. Jennings, Los Angeles Townsend speaker, who, earlier in the evening, presented the Townsend Plan to the Torrance Young Democrats club who gave him an attentive hearing.

Refreshments were served at the close of the business session after which games and a social time was enjoyed by a large number. Friday evening, June 14, being Flag Day, we plan a patriotic program to which all are invited.

Juanita Ritchie, 10, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. A. J. Ritchie, arrived this week from St. Petersburg, Fla. Juanita will spend the summer with her father in Torrance at 2108 Arlington avenue. She did such fine work in school at St. Petersburg that she received a blue ribbon as an outstanding girl and an honor student.
