

Good Hot-Weather Drinks

By Katharine Fisher Director, Good Housekeeping Institute

Long, cool drinks you can whisk together in a trice are the kind we're talking about here. Any other kind, we feel, violates the first rule of hot-weather housekeeping which is "Keep out of the kitchen as much as you can."

Pineapple-Cranberry Flip

Combine a 1-pt. bottle of cranberry-juice cocktail with 1/2 c. granulated sugar and 1/4 tsp. powdered cloves, and heat to the boiling point. Remove, and chill. Then add 2 c. canned pineapple juice, 1 tbs. lemon juice, and some ice; stir well, and serve. Serves 4.

Roman Punch

Boil 2 c. of hot water with 1 c. of granulated sugar for 5 min. Cool; then add 2 c. cold strong tea, 1 c. orange juice, 1/2 c. lemon juice, and 1 tbs. rum extract. Just before serving, add 1 qt. of pale dry ginger ale and some ice. Serves 5 to 10. Plain water or sparkling water may be substituted for the ginger ale.

Orange Mint Julep

Boil 2 c. granulated sugar with 2 1/2 c. water for 5 min. Add 16 sprigs of mint, chopped, 3/4 c. orange juice, 1 c. lemon juice, and 4 tbs. grated orange rind. Chill 1 hr., strain, and store in refrigerator. In serving, fill glasses with ice, add 5 to 6 tbs. of the fruit syrup to each, and fill with sparkling water.

Lime-Apricot Cooler

Cut the mint into small pieces, and cover with the hot water. Add sugar, and stir until dissolved. Cover, let stand 1 hr.; then strain; add fruit juices, and serve with ice. Serves 5.

Summer Fizz

Cut mint into small pieces; add grape jelly and boiling water, and stir until jelly is dissolved. When cool, strain, and add grapefruit juice. Just before serving, add the ginger ale. Serve in tall glasses with ice. Serves 10 to 12.

Mint-Chocolate Frost

Combine instant cocoa and sugar; add hot water, and stir until well combined. Cool. Add instant vanilla, and beat with an electric or a rotary egg beater until blended. Serve in tall glasses with or without additional scoops of ice cream. Serves 4.

Lemon-Mint Tea

Combine the tea, mint, and cayenne in a bowl, and add the boiling water. Steep, covered, for 15 min. Then strain; add the sugar and lemon juice; and chill. Just before serving, add an equal amount of water (1/2 c.). Serve with ice. Serves 6.

DOG CONQUERS RATTLER KENNEDVILLE, Ind. (U.P.)—Bitten by a rattlesnake, a dog belonging to a resident in this vicinity cured itself. Making for a nearby mudhole, the dog wallowed for three days, and returned home greatly improved. After a bread and milk diet, the dog was pronounced fully recovered.

Dr. Siekmann Narrowly Escapes Car Injury

Dr. Katherine Siekmann, of Torrance, narrowly escaped serious injury last Saturday when en route home. Her automobile was struck by a speeding police car near Washington boulevard. Her car was completely turned around from the impact. The other car skidded nearly 90 feet before being brought to a halt. Dr. Siekmann said this morning, now recovered from extreme shock and nervousness.

Harvard Four Million Wealthier CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—Harvard University whose $143,000,000 endowment makes it America's richest educational institution, is now $4,857,942 wealthier. That was the amount received in gifts the past year. The Carnegie Corporation of New York led the donors with $650,000.

TOWN DOES WAR BIT LONDON (U.P.)—Working men and women of Crumley, a small village west of Belfast, are lending their money interest-free to the British government. Crumley, with a population of 639, hopes the idea will spread to other villages.

About 190,000,000 persons are under Russian Communistic rule.

Recreation Activities Hit New Summer High

Many activities are scheduled for next week in the Torrance City park as announced by Torrance recreation officials today. Particularly interesting for the boys and girls is the announcement of a stamp exchange at the Arlington Center. Mrs. Townsend is in charge of the new club. Schedule of events is as follows:

- Saturday, Aug. 17, Grand community Sunday school picnic at 11 a. m. Saturday, Aug. 17, San Pedro M. E. church picnic, 11 a. m. Saturday, Aug. 17, Associated Y. M. C. A. softball tournament, 7 p. m. Sunday, Aug. 18, Knights of Columbus picnic, all days. Tuesday, Aug. 20, baseball, Colored House of David vs. the Torrance-Lomita Indians, 8 p. m. Wednesday, Aug. 21, Associated Y. M. C. A. softball tournament finals, 7 p. m. Thursday, Aug. 22, L. S. D. church picnic, 5 p. m. Aug. 16, 1940, Waveria Center, tea party for mothers. Aug. 16, 1940, 2:30 p. m., Carson Street Center, treasure hunt and watermelon party for children.

At the Arlington Center a group of men in the vicinity are grinding 6-inch mirrors for telescopes. Visitors welcome. Government experts are investigating "the chemical composition and nutritive value of sausages." Thus science may solve another age-old mystery.
