

Home Defense Plans Told to County Board

Able-bodied male citizens between 18 and 45 who are members of the state militia are subject to call for active military duty by powers vested in the governor, County Counsel J. H. O'Connor explained to the board of supervisors today.

The compulsory draft provision was cited in an opinion prepared by Deputy Claude H. McFadden of O'Connor's staff in which he held that the county could contribute funds to the so-called "Home Defense Committee," of which Rupert Hughes, the writer, is chairman.

McFadden recalled the state Military and Veterans Code adopted in 1935, and cited Sections 120 to 146. After defining the militia, the code authorizes the Governor to call out militia "in case of war, insurrection, rebellion, invasion, tumult, riot, public calamity or catastrophe, or other emergency, or imminent danger thereof, or resistance to the laws of this state or the United States." McFadden's opinion stated:

Col. Halsey E. Yates, retired U. S. army officer, now is organizing the Home Defense Committee, and drills are being held every Sunday at the Los Angeles Coliseum. Request for $5,000 to draw up plans for the defense of Los Angeles county against public enemies, and to correlate defense steps with national, state county and city governments, as well as public utility companies and industrial groups, was made of the supervisors last week.

Los Angeles city is being asked to contribute $10,000 to the defense committee, which is expected to be forthcoming.

Large Fund Available for Road Work Here

Notification that there is $35,605 available to the city for road improvements during the present fiscal year was received by the city council last night from the County Road Department. That sum is the city's share of state gasoline tax funds and includes $28,607.24 which has been accumulating to the city's credit.

They Furnished Highlights of Tuesday's Primary Election

VINCENT THOMAS
Who is holding narrow lead over James J. O'Toole in 68th Dist. Assembly Democratic race. O'Toole's staff will meet Charles M. Smith of Lomita, Republican, in November.

JAMES J. O'TOOLE
He ran the best race of his long political career. "The Fighting Irishman" has not conceded losing the Democratic nomination for Assembly to V. Thomas of S. P.

OSCAR HAUGE
Swamped all of his opponents but failed to get a majority of all votes cast for County Supervisor. He will contest the post with Tom Allen in November.

CLIFTON A. HIX
Took the Republican nomination for Congress easily last Tuesday. He will oppose Congressman Lee Geyer in the November finals. Hix is a San Pedro Attorney.

LEE E. GEYER
Ran up a big lead over Mrs. Clara Colten to take the Democratic bid for re-election in November. He will be opposed by Hix, (R), and Converse, a Progressive.

O'Toole, Thomas Race for Assembly Features Tuesday Primary Election

The campaign, Edgaf S. Fronger, received a complimentary vote of 227 here and 50 in Lomita. He did not carry a single local precinct, however.

Voters in this area made a substantial contribution toward Senator Hiram Johnson's greatest triumph of his more than 30 years of political campaigning. Torrance and Lomita electors gave him big majorities in both the Republican and Democratic tickets. His re-election in November is assured as his only opponents will be nominees of the Prohibition and Communist parties.

Support Judges
The Fitts-Dockweiler race had local repercussions as the two leaders who will fight it out in November for the district attorneyship ran neck and neck in Torrance—861 for Dockweiler and 827 for Fitts.

Torrance candidates for Democratic County Central Committee polled well here, Gordon F. Arnold, local grocer, leading the local returns with 675 votes. Pete G. Gadis got 376 and Harry S. Minor received 392.

Congressman Geyer, running for a second term, swept all Torrance precincts and took all but two in Lomita. All of the incumbent Superior Court judges were heavily backed in Torrance and Lomita with Judge Ben B. Lindsey, magistrate of the Children's Court of Conciliation and head of the special investigating committee probing the Whittier State school, receiving the largest number of votes—1,619 in Torrance.

TO CONVENTION
Members of the city council and other municipal employees will attend sessions of the California State League of Municipalities at convention in San Diego Sept. 16 to 19.

COUNCIL SESSION
Next meeting of the Torrance city council will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 3, at 5 p. m.

Youthful Drivers and Pedestrians Blamed for Fatalities Increase

SACRAMENTO (U.P.)—Youthful drivers and pedestrians are causing an increasing proportion of California automobile accidents, the department of motor vehicles disclosed today.

Department statistics revealed that 50 percent more pedestrians under 20 were killed in the first six months of this year than during the same period last year. At the same time, deaths of persons of all ages decreased.

While general accidents throughout the state increased 9 percent, those involving drivers under 20 increased 15 percent. Youthful drivers were involved in 24 percent more fatal accidents this year.

City Gets Bids on Pipe Fittings

Bids from 10 firms dealing in pipe fittings were opened by the city council at an adjourned meeting Monday afternoon. The material to be purchased by the city will be used in connecting this city's water mains to the Metropolitan Water District aqueduct line. The quotations were referred to the council as a whole. Acting City Engineer Glenn Jain and Water Manager William H. Stammer for checking and report yesterday afternoon.

At last night's council session, Councilman James Hitchcock recommended, in behalf of the group which scanned the bids, that Grinnell Company be awarded the contract to supply fittings costing $552.54. Clayton Manufacturing Company supply pressure regulating valves at $803.40. R. W. Sparling Company furnish a 16-inch meter valve for $853.20 and all other bids be rejected. The city will purchase the remainder of the fittings on open market.

The bid of the Crane Company which arrived 25 minutes late, was rejected unopened. Firms whose quotations were read were Grinnell Company, Commercial Iron Works, Charles P. Crowley, Rensselaer Valve Company, Howard Supply Company, Dayton and Waddip Company, Clayton Manufacturing Company, E. W. Sparling, Charles M. Bailey Company, Water Works Supply Company and the Rich Manufacturing Company.

First Chinchillas Born Sunday to New 'Residents'

An important birth announcement is that of the arrival of twin girls Sunday morning to Betty and "Snook" Chinchilla. They are the first chinchillas born in Walteria and Ardis Stammer states that these mites, weighing an ounce and a half each, are worth $6,400. Girl baby chinchillas are worth more than boys in the chinchilla breeding business, he says.

The little rodents, born full furred, are very lively and pretty. They are not receiving visitors as yet as their mother objects to their being disturbed. The feeding and sleeping hours for baby chinchillas are quite as scientific and rigid as those of our modern human babies.

However in a few weeks, the rules will be slackened and visitors will be permitted. Visitors may now see the other chinchillas who represent an investment of $20,000.

Highway Group Meets at L. A. Airport Tonight

A dinner-meeting of the South-west District Highways Association will be held tonight at 6:30 p. m. at Los Angeles Municipal Airport. The principal speaker will be F. C. Lynch, manager of the Los Angeles Safety Council, whose subject will be "Safety First and Traffic Enforcement," according to President Oscar E. Willett.
