$50 Repeal Endorsed
—Councilman Murray's motion at Monday afternoon's adjourned council session that the records of the police court be audited by Logan R. Cotton, city auditor, was seconded by Councilman Powell and unanimously adopted. He did not amplify his motion with an reference to the dismissal of Judge Lessing. Auditor Cotton's assistants are now at work on the court books. Since the appearance of the signed editorial in The Herald last week by Publisher Grover C. Whyte advocating repeal of the existing $50 a month salary for city councilmen on the ground that such repeal would "take away the sugar" that attracts so many flies at our municipal elections," the newspaper has received many endorsements on this subject.

The Herald's publisher made it plain that such a repeal should not result in any financial hardship on employees of industrial plants or others obliged to work by the hour or day and who would make excellent public officials. It was proposed that wage-earners who were elected could be compensated at their regular pay rate for all time lost away from their jobs while performing municipal duties.

One Industrial worker called at The Herald office this week with the suggestion that the city pay its councilmen $2 for each regular meeting in addition

City crews were working on the site this week and as soon as the foundations are laid, the cars will be moved. J. W. Post, district chairman of the Boy Scout organization, reported to other members of the district committee at the regular meeting Tuesday evening.

Next week the inventor of the equipment, which will be kept for public use without charge at the central fire station, will come here to demonstrate its use.

He will be assisted in the instruction by Bob Hume, who aided the nation's foremost "iron lungers," Fred Snite, in coming back to the U. S. from China. Lessons in operation of the equipment will be given firemen and members of the Legion's first-aid unit.

Commander Bird expressed his sincere thanks to all who contributed to the "iron lung" fund and said the Legion was glad to make this respiratory aid available to all residents without charge.

City to Purchase Third Bus for Municipal Line

Plans and specifications for the improvement of Torrance blvd. from Border ave. to near Fern ave. have been worked on for the past eight months. Recently Mayor Tom McGuire invited all those interested in the project to inspect the drawings in the city engineer's office.

Changes Doubtful Now City officials point out that application has already been made to the W.P.A. for the Torrance blvd. project as planned months ago. They said that if the W.P.A. approves the project it is doubtful if any further changes can be made in the long proposed improvement. Mayor McGuire invited those interested to inspect the plans when he spoke before the dinner-meeting of the Torrance Business Men's Association March 28.

On several occasions prior to this date, the city council invited inspection of the plans and suggestions. When none were forthcoming, city officials assumed the project was acceptable as it stood and accordingly proceeded to file it with the W.P.A.

Three Escape Drowning in Nigger Slough

Marooned in waters of Nigger Slough up to their necks while they stood on the running board of their wrecked car for nearly two hours early Saturday, two women and Thomas A. Juett, 52-year-old Torrance carpenter, narrowly escaped drowning. Their car had careened from the highway into the slough near the junction of Main st. and Broadway. The three victims were rescued from the nearly submerged car by a truck driver, who pulled them to shore—a distance of about 10 feet—with a tow rope. All were treated at Torrance Memorial hospital for shock and exposure. The women were Mrs. Leah Adleman and Mrs. Meta Blanton, twin sisters living in Los Angeles. Neither could swim.

THIS IS THE YEAR FOR Luxury Comfort

Simmons 70th Anniversary Week

SALE

Only $1⁰⁰ Down and 75¢ a Week Brings You the Greatest Beautyrest Ever Made

Get a mattress you know will last. Many a mattress is comfortable—when you first get it. But will it still be giving that same comfort ten years from now? The new Beautyrest will. It's guaranteed for ten long years. And we mean guaranteed. For the United States Testing Company subjected 17 different makes to grueling tests on Mattress Endurance Machines like this, in its Certified Test No. 11760. And the Beautyrest lasted three times longer than even the next best make.

Consider the two kinds of "insides"

In the ordinary mattress, the springs are all joined together. That's why such a mattress seems to roll with your weight when you turn... gives you "sag" support. Each of Beautyrest's 837 individually pocketed coils acts independently. However you lie or turn, your body is evenly, buoyantly supported—snuggly cradled. That's the secret of luxury comfort. Other mattresses just can't give it. We know. We make both kinds.

And one whose looks will last, too

Remember that the Beautyrest looks much like other mattresses... in the store. But after a few years' use, many others have sagging edges and lumps and hollows. While Beautyrest stays firm and even. Why? Because a patented "sag-proof" border keeps the sides smooth and neat and resilient throughout its long, long life. Your Beautyrest just can't form lumps or hollows, either. So—you have to turn it only 4 or 5 times a year!

Buy the mattress that costs you less—per night! Many mattresses have a "floating" price. Hard to tell when you're getting a bargain. But the Beautyrest is always $39.50—wherever you go... whenever you buy. And it's a greater bargain at $39.50 than many other mattresses at cut prices! For, based on our 10-year guarantee alone—and that's conservative—the Beautyrest comes down to only a penny a night! With luxury comfort besides!
