87 Narbonne Hi Seniors Graduate Tonight

Hitler Seeks Soviet Food to Feed Them

These hungry Frenchmen lined up before a Vichy bakery to get U. S. bread distributed through American agencies in the city, are typical of the millions of conquered Europeans whose food problem is believed partially responsible for Nazi-Soviet war. Hitler struck out for rich Ukraine grain fields to provision his starving empire.

GRADUATES TO MARCH IN CAPS AND GOWNS TONIGHT

The traditional march of Narbonne high school, "Pomp and Circumstances," will be a little different tonight from past years for the girls. Instead of gowns of pastel shades, they will wear white gowns and the boys will wear gowns of blue but the march will be the same and will take them away from their high school days.

The program as usual will be short. There will be a talk by Dr. William G. Campbell, student talks, musical numbers and the presentation of honors and diplomas. Then the class will sing the Alma Mater song, written by Vernon Hart, 8' 38, and retire to the front of the main building where they will receive congratulations.
