COUNTY FAIR SPURS INTEREST IN "FIRST LINE" WORK

Each year in the past Los Angeles County Fair has staged its farmerette contest for the best milkmaid and shepherd, etc., and while competition was keen it was great fun. This year the girls will enter the contest in earnest for under present conditions they do not know when they will be called upon to shoulder the shovel and the hoe to replace the youths who are being called to arms. Left to right they are Gloria Smith, Nancy Gillen, Dorothy Wood, Nancy Nesbit, Doris Wilson, Stella Evans, Alona Leslie, Marilyn Kler and Bessie Carter.

Bonds for Negro Tourists
Negro tourists are now required to post a cash bond of 250 pesos, or approximately $50, upon entering the Republic of Mexico. No explanation of the new regulation has been received.

Indians Bolster Club for Coming Winter Season
Led by the powerful hitting paces of Lane Shanks, Louie Briganti and Jimmy Daniels, the Torrance Indians whipped out a 7-to-2 victory over the Pasadena Merchants last Sunday for their 18th win out of the last 14 games. The Indians' record now stands at 25 wins, three losses and two ties in the last 30 games. There will be no game Sunday.

Manager Johnny Angel has contacted these new players for the Torrance club for the coming winter season: Willard "Red" Embree, rated as fast or faster than Bob Feller of Cleveland by eastern scouts, recently brought by the Cleveland Indians along with Ambrose Palca, pitcher from Charleston, West Virginia.

Larry Barton, of Wilkes-Barre, who played with the Sacramento club in '38 and '39 and Columbus in '40, recently voted most valuable player in the Eastern League and who ended the season with the highest batting average in the league will play first base for the Indians.

Cliff Mapes, 200-pound catcher of Wilkes-Barre, will be behind the plate. Mapes, a Long Beach boy and full of fight along with Bob Lemon, also of Long Beach who at the beginning of the season was on the Cleveland Indians roster and now with Wilkes-Barre, will play the hot-cornor with the Indians.

Noted Ballet in L. B. Concert Series Opening on Oct. 14

BALLERINA A LA RUSSE
Long Beach will have the privilege of hearing the finest concert attractions ever presented when the Greater Artist Series opens Oct. 14. In the series will be the world renowned Ballet Russe, a company of 150 dancers with a symphony orchestra. The brilliance and beauty of this great ensemble make it a stellar attraction. All five performances will be presented in the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium.

Famous Novel on Plaza Screen in Technicolor
When a great cast, great story and great director are assembled for a motion picture, it's inevitable that moviegoers are in for a treat.

That treat is forthcoming in Paramount's Technicolor film version of the famous novel by Harold Bell Wright, "The Shepherd of the Hills," which arrives Sunday at the Plaza theatre in Hawthorne, starring John Wayne, Betty Field and Harry Carey, Henry Hathaway handled the megaphone on this romantic drama of the Ozarks.

As most people know, even if they haven't read the book, the story of "The Shepherd of the Hills," has been read by millions of people, and has become what can fairly be called a classic in American fiction.

John Wayne is Young Matt, and a splendid portrayal of the hot-blooded, reckless character of the handsome, young over six-footer gives Betty Field, in the role of Sammy Lane, the half-wild, lovable little mountain girl who could fight and love with the ferocity of a wildcat; Harry Carey, that veteran of a hundred perfect screen characterizations, is The Shepherd himself, and Old Matt is seen enacted by James Barton, famous as the Jeeter Lester of the Broadway stage play, "Tobacco Road."

High Notes on P.V. Symphony
By JIM HOWE

We hope we are not "jumping the gun" on formal announcement of one of the big concert events of the season. But a "scoop" is a scoop and here 'tis: Tonight (Thursday) the vestry and heads of departments of St. Cross church, Hermosa Beach, are holding a meeting to organize for the sponsorship of the October concert by Palos Verdes Symphony.

A composer and a soloist and a chorus will be represented out of St. Cross membership alone. Josef Piastra has written a fine new patriotic anthem to be sung by the chorus, the words by Betsy Schellenberg of Palos Verdes Estates. The augmented St. Cross Choir, under Jan Williams, will do the singing. So it looks like "Old Home Week" and a good time will be had by all.

A number of Torrance and Lomita people are active in P. V. Orchestra affairs, especially Jean Houdasheit, Al Doucet, Walter Marek, Kenneth Hineckley and Jean Hornstra. We are sorry to have lost Wilbur Hornstra to college, but we wish him well, and a return to the trombone section.

Acts Booked For Big Police Show in Aud.
With President Bill Evans of the Torrance Police and Firemen's Association again serving as impresario and booking agent, plans are being made for the fifth annual Police and Firemen's benefit vaudeville show in the Civic Auditorium Oct. 24. Ten high-class acts have been booked with the Gene Bren theatrical Enterprises.

Evans said he expected the dancing beauties and vaudeville novelty acts lined up for this year's presentation would make it the most popular of the association has staged. Proceeds will go to the police and firemen's retirement, welfare and disability fund.

New Schedules For Santa Fe
Important changes in Santa Fe Railway train schedules were announced today by C. C. Thompson, general passenger agent, Coast Lines. The changes, effective last Sunday, Sept. 7, include the following trains:

Los Angeles-Santa Fe service: train No. 70, Diesel-powered streamliner, departs from Los Angeles Union Station daily at 8 a.m., instead of 7:30 a.m. Arrival time at San Diego is 11:10 p.m.

If Defense Savings Stamps are lost the owner is out of pocket, as if he had lost money. A stamp Album should be kept in a safe place.

A Defense Savings Bond may be bought for only $18.75. In ten years it will be worth $25.00. A booklet of Defense Savings Stamps pays for an $18.75 bond.

Travelers used to call the Atlantic a pond. Roosevelt and Churchill made it a counsel table.

As might be expected, those eight points caused cheers in London and jeers in Berlin.

"IF WISHES WERE HORSES..." You can almost see the green in their eyes as Janie's (Ginger Rogers) three suitors in the swell RKO Radio comedy, "Tom, Dick and Harry" which is now showing at the Grand theatre, look at each other with that "wish you were far away" look. A delightful and provoking tale of a girl who loves three men and wants them all. "Tom, Dick and Harry" is Miss Roger's first picture since "Kitty Foyle." The three candidates are, left to right: Harry, played by Burgess Meredith; Tom, played by George Murphy; and Dick, played by Alan Marshal. The companion feature on the Grand program is "Border Vigilantes" starring William (Hopalong Cassidy) Boyd.

"TWEET!"... Typical of the cop on the corner?... Actually he's an actor, and his "beat" was a hotel room where photographer C. Weston Booth of Los Angeles posed him for Popular Photo-graphy magazine's "Picture of the Month," an unusually fine facial study. Under ideal lighting conditions far above city streets, Booth used a 4x5 model D Graflex fitted with a 9 1/2" Voigtlander Heliar f4.5 lens. The exposure, on Eastman Super-XX film, was 1/50 second at f18 with a medium yellow filter.

10:30 a. m. Train No. 72 leaves at 9:30 a. m., daily instead of 9:10 a. m. Arrival time at San Diego is 12:45 p.m. Train No. 76 leaves at 5 p. m., instead of 5:15 p. m. Arrival time at San Diego is 7:30 p.m. This arrangement, Thompson said, is being made for the convenience of the passengers and continues to give five daily trains each way between the two cities, four of them Diesel-powered streamliners.

Two transcontinental trains are affected by the new time table. The California Limited, train No. 4, now leaves Los Angeles daily at 7:15 p. m. instead of 7 p. m. Santa Fe's fast mail and express train, under the new time schedule, leaves Union station at 11 p.m., instead of 11:10 p. m.

Local Fight Fans Enjoy Redondo Card

With a large delegation of Torrance and Lomita fans present, the Tuesday night boxing card at the Redondo Athletic Club proved a stellar attraction. The 10 events featured a match for the "championship of Central avenue," won by Kobe Scott over Harry Murphy, two fast colored boys. The main event only lasted one minute, Jack Butler of Los Angeles, scoring a technical knockout. Another 10-event show had been scheduled for next Tuesday night, Sept. 16, at the popular arena in Redondo Beach.
