"All this in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof; but he that does the will of God abideth for ever." These verses from I John are the Golden Text in the Lesson-Sermon on "Unreality" on Sunday in all Churches of Christ.

A Scriptural citation includes this verse from Revelation: "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created." And Jesus words from Matthew: "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravelling wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?... Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them."

Passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, and "Good" never causes evil, nor creates aught that can cause evil." "Everything good or worthy, God made. Whatever is valueless or harmful, He did not make—hence its unreality. In the Science of Genesis we read that He saw everything which He had made, and, behold, it was very good."

Co. Tax Roll Increased by New Firms

There are 1,001 more oil wells on county assessment rolls this year than there were four years ago, according to a report filed with the board of supervisors by County Assessor John R. Quinn.

The 1941 roll shows a total of 5,738 wells, as against 4,737 in 1937. There are 22 oil fields within the county. Decrease of nearly 15 per cent in the assessed values of oil property was noted, the total being $151,975,000 this year, as against $168,400,000 last year.

Also on the assessment roll are 491 water distributing systems, an increase of 45 over 1940, Quinn's report stated. Assessed value of these systems rose more than 9 per cent this year, to a total of $2,500,500.

The assessor reported that he had found 3,143 more business firms in operation this year than a year ago, the total being 157,978. This was near 18,000 more firms than were found when the 1937 roll was prepared, showing the growth of the county.

In its annual survey of residential property, the contents of 44,444 new dwellings were appraised for the first time this year. More than 800,000 residential units were visited by a staff of 300 field deputies, many of whom had to be trained.

The assessor's marine division found more than 1,200 documented vessels, 6,517 undocumented boats and 2,700 boats of the kind not required to register with the U. S. Department of Commerce. Non-commercial airplanes owned or kept in the county numbered 1,250 this year, an increase of 750 over the previous year.

Have You Read?

By AILEEN MOSHER

"MY NEW ORDEE" By Adolf Hitler At last we are given the book we have all been waiting for. Adolf Hitler gives us his own sequel to "Mein Kampf," "My New Order."

The world was aghast when it read "Mein Kampf." And now it shall be struck, I hope, into action as it reads "My New Order." Where the first book left off, the second begins, telling in the dictator's own words his plans for an eventual world conquest. And who could be a more reasonable editor than Raoul de Roussy de Sales, who edited the horror book No. 1, "Mein Kampf?"

In this sequel, horror book No. 2, we see action, Hitler in action. We read his constant self-contradictions. We hear the queer little Austrian painter, shouting to all the world: "If you don't play my way, I shall annihilate you."

A little man with a big mouth is trying to build his backyard fence around the whole world. Will he succeed? This amazing specimen of humanity shows himself to us as no other could picture him, unless perhaps it would be Charlie Chaplin.

Throughout this amazing revelation, the editor has added at the proper places, commentary of all kinds, press reports, and explanations. The entire book has been organized so as to give a clear, coherent picture of the little man who isn't all there.

Raymond Gram Swing in his introduction says that "My New Order" offers an opportunity for the reader to follow Hitler in his trip from No. 7 man in the German Workers' party to his present status, bidding for the world domination.

We have all read books, seen movies, and perused newspapers concerning the tactics of Herr Hitler. Now we can read, in the leader's own words, his ultimate goal and the tactics employed to gain that goal. The horrifying statements of a madman, and the excellent commentary of one of the world's leading journalists form the text of this volume, "My New Order." The book is news today. Tomorrow it will be history!

SLIPS AND TIPS SLIP—Henry Pleasant's story of the American Revolution, "Mars' Butterfly," is, in my opinion, a superb slip.

TIP—An exceptional bargain for mystery fans is "Three Peize Murders," containing three full length novels that received honorable mention in the Mary Roberts Rinehart mystery novel contest.

Townsend Club Activities

There will be no meeting of the Townsend Club tomorrow (Friday) night. Instead, promoters of a new club being launched in Lomita hope that our members will attend the session at Community hall, Woodward ave. and 24th st. Our club will gather as usual at the hall on Cravens ave. on Oct. 10.

Last Friday night the club enjoyed a social evening with Mr. Rich as violinist and a piano accompanist. A large crowd was present to enjoy the music, visiting and refreshments of sandwiches and coffee.
