No Fan Dance at Police Show but It Will Be Tops

There's no truth to the rumor that Police Chief John Birch will present a fan-dance of his own at the fifth annual Torrance Police and Firemen's benefit vaudeville shows in the Civic Auditorium Oct. 24.

But Sergeant Bill Evans, impresario for that entertainment, declares that it will be a "super-colossal extravaganza of mirth and thrills." Bill continued, and a circus press agent:

"We've got 10 of the best acts that ever hit a stage booked for the two shows—one at 7 o'clock and the other at 9:30 o'clock—and the price of the tickets, a mere 55 cents per pastebord, constitutes the biggest bargain in entertainment to be found in these here parts in many a moon."

So says Showman Evans as he prepared today to distribute the tickets among his fellow-officers and firemen for a quick advance sale.

Mickey Rooney At His Best in New Hardy Hit

"Life Begins for Andy Hardy," latest of the Hardy Family adventures opens Saturday at the Plaza theatre in Hawthorne for a four-day run.

The new film, which deals with the problems facing youth following graduation from high school, is one of the most serious to date and finds young Andy cutting home ties to go to New York and work for a month. At the end of this time he plans to make his decision concerning his future, whether he shall continue to work or go to college.

Never before in a Hardy film has Mickey Rooney found a more brilliant opportunity for his talents. With him, as guest star with the family for the third time, is Judy Garland as Betsy Booth.

All of the Hardy Family favorites are present, with Lewis Stone as the Judge, Fay Holden as Ma Hardy, Sara Haden as Aunt Milly and Ann Rutherford as Polly Benedict.

5 Star Concert Series Opening Soon in L. B.

Lawrence Tibbett, American baritone will open the Greater Artist Series five star attractions of music and ballet Oct. 14 in Long Beach. Tibbett is a native of Bakersfield and was educated in Los Angeles. Bartlett and Robertson, duo pianists, is the second presentation of the series Nov. 14. Ethel Bartlett is an Englishwoman of great beauty and her husband, Rae Robertson, is a Scotsman.

The Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo is the third presentation Feb. 3. There are 150 virtuosos artists, lavishly costumed who dance to the accompaniment of symphony orchestra. Grace Moore, America's own lyric soprano, is the fourth artist to appear, March 27. She is a native of Jellico, Tenn., and reached the heights by climbing what seemed to her an interminable number of steps through musical comedy, opera and cinema.

Dorothy Maynor, fifth and final artist who will close the series April 8, is a young Negro soprano who was discovered by Koussevitsky at his annual Berkshire festival. She is a native of Norfolk, Va., and started her musical career through choral singing. Headquarters of the Greater Artist Series are at Humphreys Music Store. All five performances will be presented at the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium.

All State Employees But Those Under Civil Service Must Take Oath

State Finance Director George Killion said this week any non-civil service state employee who fails to take an oath as provided by a law enacted by the 1941 legislature will forfeit his position.

The new law, effective Sept. 13, provides that every person appointed to a state position not in state civil service, and not otherwise required by law, shall take and subscribe to an oath that he will support the state and federal constitutions and will faithfully discharge his duties to the best of his ability.

$8 Gift to State Treasury Salves His Conscience

The California state treasury was recently enriched by $8, the contribution of a conscience-stricken individual.

In a letter to state finance George Killion, the anonymous contributor said he had helped himself to state supplies and equipment while employed by the state.

He said he had realized the error of his ways since following teachings of Father Divine, Negro religious leader, and wished to clear his conscience by returning the money to the state.

Mrs. A. Shriver, spent the weekend at Crestline.
