Valley Lecture Season Opens at S. P. Oct. 21

'Never was there a finer crop of books and never before have people turned so wholeheartedly to books for their solace, amusement and information,' says Lorita Baker Valley, distinguished commentator on world affairs and current literature, who will give her first talk of the season October 21 under auspices of the San Pedro Assistance League. The lecture will begin at 8 o'clock at the San Pedro Woman's clubhouse, Eleventh and Gaffey streets.

Each ticket holder is entitled to bring one guest. These desirable tickets for Mrs. Valley's lectures should call Mrs. R. P. Schaefer at Torrance 997-J. Subsequent lectures, of which there are five, will be given at 10:45 o'clock on the third Tuesday morning of November, January, February, March and April. They will take place at Assistance League headquarters, 732 S. Pacific ave., San Pedro, and will be followed by the usual coffee hour.

LORITA BAKER VALLEY

In a more optimistic mood Mrs. Valley said that she views the present world situation in a more optimistic mood than in previous years inasmuch as the tide has turned, she feels, and the only thing that can defeat the democracies is complacency.

'If we are complacent and yield to petty bickerings and criticisms,' she said, 'we will lose for the world, for we now

MRS. CLARK ENTERTAINS AT SHOWER FOR MATRON

Mrs. J. Rex Clark was hostess when she entertained Saturday evening for Mrs. Ray Thompson, Zola Neal. Pink rosebuds were used to decorate and a stork motif was cleverly accented in the shower accessories.
