

Clubhouse Setting For Job's Daughters Installation

In a beautiful setting at Torrance Woman's clubhouse Sunday afternoon, Miss Lois Jayne Allen and her staff of officers were inducted into office. Edmund A. Day served as master of ceremonies and gave the address of welcome. Music was contributed to the program by Leland Eisel who played Christmas carols on his vibra-harp and Harriet Pegors, who sang.

Miss Allen succeeded Shirley Gutfenfelder in office and the other elective leaders are Margaret Mort, senior princess; Marilyn Moyer, junior princess; Beverly Whitney, guide, and Edna Wels, marshal.

The appointive officers are: Pat Whitney, chaplain; Virginia Hall, recorder; Irene Findley, treasurer; Jean Yoder, musician; Carolyn Mitchell, librarian; Kathryn Turner, senior custodian; Audrey Miller, junior custodian; Helen Ericson, inner guard; Margaret Schultz, outer guard; Lucille Rugraff, Pat Rojo, Barbara Moyer, Doris Wilkes and Barbara Quimby, messengers.

Barbara Lock is assistant recorder; Harriet Pegors, parliamentarian; Norma Levy, flower and thought, and Ruth Kerber, publicity.

V. F. W. AUXILIARY DOES ITS PART

At the V. F. W. Auxiliary meeting Dec. 9 with Edna Millan of Redondo Beach, inspector, present, at the home of Mrs. Claribel Darling, it was voted to take care of the unit's hospital quota at Palo Alto and also send money to help the Christmas party for veterans at Sawtelle.

Florence Howe was surprised at her home, 1967 Plaza Dec. 17 when she and her husband were presented with a service for six. Nine members were present. Mr. Howe is one of the shut-in veterans. All members of the unit are asked to attend the Red Cross meetings at headquarters in the Steel Workers' hall on Cravens ave.

FAMILY REUNION AT WHYTE HOME

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Whyte and Mrs. Addie Clemons, 1620 Post ave., over the holidays will be Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clemons, of Clemons, Iowa. They are expected tomorrow. Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Arthur and daughter Janet will arrive Friday evening from San Jose. Eight other members of the Clemons family will join the group at a family dinner at the Whyte residence Christmas day, and a larger gathering is expected for supper.

FRIENDS SAFE IN HONOLULU

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Smith of 1754 Gramercy ave. received a cablegram late last week reporting Mr. and Mrs. Edward Byrnes and Miss Betsy Byrnes, former residents of Torrance, were safe in Honolulu.

NEXT CATHOLIC CARD PARTY IS JAN. 2

The regular weekly card party under the auspices of Catholic ladies will be cancelled during Christmas week because of the Feast of the Holy Family.

The next party will be held Friday evening, Jan. 2, and sponsored by Mmes. Emery, Malinier, Morin, Kitto, Blair, Elder, Jos. Landerville and Fredericks.

JACKIE BEEMAN HAS BIRTHDAY

The sixth birthday of Jackie Beeman was the occasion for a gala party Sunday afternoon at his home on El Prado. His guests were: Mary Sue and Cynthia Easley, Sharon Felker, Judy Rhone, George King, Jerry Harder, David Vonderahe, and Janel Beeman. Christmas decorations were used throughout and games furnished diversion. A decorated birthday cake was served with ice cream at the close of the game period.

Ray Brooks of Tulare formerly of Torrance, was a weekend visitor here.

HALLEY-CARRELL WEDDING FRIDAY

The wedding of Miss Eleanore L. Carrell, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Frank Carrell of Gardena, to Mr. Matt W. Halley was held Friday evening at the Carrell home in the same room where her parents were married 23 years ago. Rev. David Barnett, pastor of the Moneta Presbyterian church, officiated in the presence of 60 guests.

The bride was attended by her sorority sister, Miss Betty Berggren of Hermosa Beach while Harold R. Halley served his brother as best man. Following a honeymoon in Arizona, Mrs. Halley will continue her studies at U. S. C. where she will graduate in June. Her husband will go into Army service.

Operation Ends Blindness That Dates From Birth

BRISTOL, Eng. (U.P.) William Henry Massey was born blind 33 years ago, and when he met his bride he had never seen her and did not dare hope that he ever would.

He met Miss R. M. Weeks, a Bristol schoolteacher, four years ago. His home is at Oakfield Road, Bristol. He went into the hospital soon after their meeting for an unusual eye-operation. A cornea from someone else's eye was grafted to one of his own.

He did not know what the result would be, but when the bandages were taken off he found that he could see dimly.
