But if there still must be "business as usual" the people who desire to attend church those three hours should be encouraged to do so. Certainly in such troubled perplexity as we find our world today we can gain the strength and insight to face it squarely with renewed courage if we spend a few hours in the quiet of our churches with the message that Christ's Crucifixion has for us.

I sincerely hope that the people of Torrance will have the proper humility fitting to the children of God and that they will not pass Good Friday without spending some part of that day in thoughtful meditation and prayer — either in our

Letters to Editor

PAUSE FOR GOOD FRIDAY March 9, 1942 Editor, The Torrance Herald. Dear Sir:

Word has been received that all state employees will be given time off from work on Good Friday, April 3, from 12 o'clock noon to 3 p. m. in order that they may attend services held those hours to commemorate Our Lord's Crucifixion. May I suggest that the city of Torrance and the merchants act likewise?

Bob Golden Entered In Long Beach Relays

Torrance high school will be represented by Bobby Golden in the Long Beach Relays at Stephens Field, Saturday, Mar. 21. Golden is entered in the 12-1b. shot put, high jump and hop-step-and-jump in the high school carnival which will be held in the morning of meet day.

All the major schools in Southern California from Bakersfield to San Diego are entered, and a prep field of more than 200 is expected. The Relays' highlight looms in the college and open competitions during the afternoon, however, where all the "Big Five" of the Pacific Coast are assured entries.

Improved Hotel Will Open April 1

The new Murray Hotel, a quake-proof structure at 1210 El Prado, will open its doors to guests April 1.

Mrs. Matilda Winters will continue to operate under the same fine, home atmosphere as has been her policy in the past. She is considered one of the earliest pioneer hotel proprietors of Torrance, having been in the hotel business here for 24 years.

Reservations may be made by calling Torrance 794.

TARTARS LOSE AGAIN Continuing their uninterrupted losing streak, the Torrance high school baseball team was defeated by Narbonne's Gauchos, 5 to 0, at the city park diamond Tuesday.
