'My Gal Sal' Gals Knit for Britons

There's a new sweater set out at 20th Century-Fox and it isn't likely that they'll ever have any trouble with the censors even tho Rita Hayworth and Carole Landis are shapely leaders of the group.

For one thing—they don't wear sweaters, they knit them. All material, such as wool and needles and patterns, has been supplied by Miss Hayworth, who started the knitting bee on the set of 20th Century-Fox's "My Gal Sal" which is currently showing at the Plaza theatre in Hawthorne. And every woman who joined the group when it started during shooting is continuing to turn out sweaters and mittens for the soldiers and sailors both at home and in Britain.

Also starred in "My Gal Sal" are Victor Mattré and John Sutton, and included in the featured cast are James Gleason, Phil Silvers, Walter Catlett, Mona Marks and Frank Orth. Besides the famous Paul Dresser songs used in the film, there are several additional tunes of hit parade status.

New French Star In Grand Film

One of the most pleasing and refreshing of the new stars, Jean Gabin, is proving a sensation in his first top American role which he has in "Moonlites," opening at the Grand theatre tonight. Opposite him is the fast-rising Ida Lupino, in a characterization which furthers her stock.

Gabin is the French star about whom so much was expected. He has fulfilled them all in "Moonlites." The other feature on the Grand bill is "The Mexican Spitfire's Baby" with Lupe Velez and Leon Errol.
