

Rubber Plant Wins T-Flag

When Victor J. Reeder, rubber czar William Jeffers' assistant, came here late last week to inspect the synthetic rubber factory being installed at 190th st. and Vermont ave., he found he had arrived just in time to aid in a record-breaking U. S. Treasury department award ceremony.

Award of a special certificate, as well as a "Minute Man T" flag, accompanied announcement by William H. Hodge, Treasury department official, that Kaighn & Hughes employees installing the rubber plant equipment are the first to set a new high mark of 17 per cent of weekly pay pledged to buy War Bonds, through pay roll deductions.

Workers Win Praise
At the time of the presentation Hodge, who is Southern California War Bonds deputy administrator, disclosed that 99 per cent of the 663 local employees of the firm are participating in the group War Bond purchase program. Kaighn & Hughes is a national piping engineering and contracting concern, with head offices in Toledo, Ohio.

At an all - employee meeting Reeder congratulated the Kaighn & Hughes employees on the grade and progress of their work, as well as their record bond buying achievement. In the Southland for little more than 24 hours, the rubber official made a flying trip here to check with local engineers connected with the new 90,000-ton capacity synthetic rubber plant construction.

Improve Percentage
When making the top place War Bonds award Hodge announced that he found particularly noteworthy the fact that the Kaighn & Hughes employee group had spontaneously greatly improved both the percentage of pay roll pledged for bond deductions, and the percentage of employees pledged to take part in the pay roll deduction plan.

The award was accepted on behalf of the management by John H. Bryce, supervising engineer of the local "job." Miss Eleanor Curran and Mrs. Thetis Dickson accepted for the employees.

All Units Eligible
It was also revealed that nearly all departments of the organization were actually participating 100 per cent in the War Bond pledge deductions plan. All departments were eligible for and were awarded departmental "Minute Man T" banners. Those receiving awards on behalf of their respective departments included C. C. Norton, Gardner, office manager and chief accountant who turned over banners to Ralph Hinman, chief clerk, for accounting; Ralph Hogan, chief timekeeper and paymaster; Earl F. Curran, warehouse, and John A. Thomson, in charge of the bonds pledge campaign.

Lester R. Kelly, engineering head, received the Treasury ban-

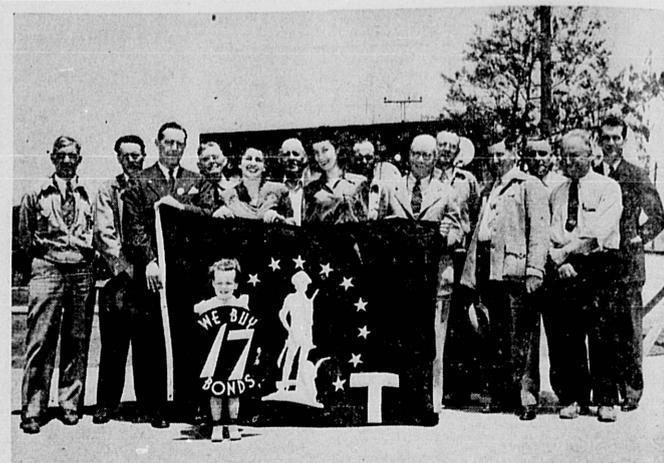

Gardening Students Tour Home Plots

Concluding a 16-weeks' course in Home Gardening sponsored by the Adult Education department, conducted at the Torrance high school by Harry Stone, agriculture teacher, members made a tour of local gardens this week to see a demonstration of the many suggestions outlined by the instructor.

Among the gardens visited were those of Messrs. and Mmes. H. E. Carr, C. E. Carstens, E. W. Pietzschke, Cochran, E. W. Quimby, L. C. Miller, John R. Garner, F. L. Parks and Mrs. Orla Davis.

ner for his department. Banners Accepted
Frank Hofbauer, Redondo Beach, general superintendent, accepted banners for the "field" departments, turning them over to the following superintendents: Hiram Reed, pipe fitters; George Ruark, welding and equipment; Ray Ohmer, millwrights; Floyd Brower, laborers.

Also assisting at the presentation was Frank J. Perren, supervising engineer, Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. The huge synthetic rubber production unit is being built, under auspices of the Defense Plant Corp. for the Rubber Reserve Co. and the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co.

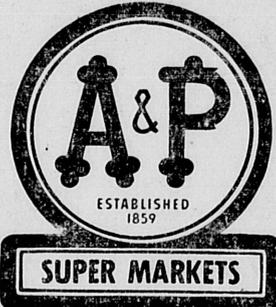

INVEST IN BONDS—The 663 employees of the Kaighn & Hughes Company, contracting firm for the installation of a synthetic rubber processing plant at Torrance, are exceeding the usual 10 per cent pay investment in war bonds of other concerns, by 7 per cent, it was revealed on occasion of the award of the Treasury's Minute Man Flag to the concern. Representing

Red Cross Blood Plasma Rates Top Priority With Armed Forces

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A landing at Safi, white robed Arabs ignoring rifle fire to bum cigarettes, a bullet's sting and a doctor pumping life-saving plasma into his veins—these are vivid recollections of Lieut. Landis D. Morris of Olar, South Carolina. One of the first wounded men returned from North Africa to Walter Reed hospital here, Mor-

Army, told of case after case in which plasma has meant the difference between life and death. "In one instance," he says, "four hundred men were badly burned aboard ship. Treatment was given promptly and all except six recovered. Blood plasma gets the credit to a very large degree."

In Alaska, a rescue party headed by Major Milo Fritz hiked on snowshoes to reach a pilot crashed on an isolated mountain range. They got there just in time for plasma transfusions to pull him out of shock caused by a broken leg and ten days' exposure.

Out of the jungles of New Guinea comes a direct plea to America for more plasma. According to Major Simon Warmanover, formerly of St. Mary's hospital in Grand Rapids, plasma gets A-1 priority right up to the battle lines.

"We need it, all we can get, right now," he says. "I don't know who donated the blood that saved my life," says Morris. "But if the people in the United States only knew what it means to us there on the battlefield—well, I think we could count on them to give the four million pints the Army and Navy have asked the Red Cross to collect this year."

Unfortunately, not everyone can give blood to the Red Cross, but they can contribute to the 1943 War Fund of $125,000,000, part of which will be used to support this phase of the Red Cross program which often means the difference between life and death to American fighting men.

Returning recently from North Africa, Major General James C. Magee, surgeon general of the

'Block Mother' Security Plan Being Formed

A drive was launched to organize Block Mothers at a recent joint meeting of the executive boards of Torrance Elementary and Fern Avenue P.T.A. Police Chief John Stroth was introduced by Mrs. W. E. Bowen, president of Torrance Elementary P.T.A., who served as chairman. Stroth congratulated the women on their foresight in providing this wartime service and assured them of cooperation.

Miss Mary Charlotte Weddell, Fern Avenue principal, contributed suggestions for the organization and promised assistance from her group, while Mrs. J. J. Millard, Lomita-San Pedro Council president, as principal speaker, reported on the district's progress and outlined plans for the organization of the work.

Bernard J. Strand, Torrance Elementary principal, expressed his willingness to assist. The duties of Block Mothers are few but very important. In the event of an air raid, while small children are going to or from school, the home of the Block Mother, whose window carries a placard with a scarlet S on a white background, is a haven of refuge. Children have been taught that they may enter and that their needs will be provided for until the all-clear signal sounds. One does not have to be a mother, or even a P.T.A. member in order to qualify. Organization plans are being rushed during these last weeks of school so that children may have this safety shelter during vacation and be well trained when school reopens in the fall.
