Water Line Data Wanted by City

All water companies operating within the city limits were ordered by the city council Tuesday night to file uniform data with the city engineer regarding the location of their pipe lines, sizes of pipe and type of operating procedure "at least once a year and oftener if necessary."

Councilman Nick Cucci proposed that this information be made available in the interest of postwar planning and also to give the city officials accurate information as to the facilities available here.

PATROLMAN NAMED Oscar Vanderver was appointed a member of the Torrance police department for the duration by action of the city council Tuesday night.
