VACATION DAYS

Mrs. W. F. Burgener and sons, Harold and Dicky, are spending several weeks at Headlee's camp in San Gabriel canyon. They were joined last weekend by her husband. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bodley, were also recent vacationers there.

SHIP TONNAGE ZOOMS

In a world so surfeited with bad news, it is always a pleasant change to report good news—news which reflects the determination of the people at home to do their utmost to achieve an early victory over our enemies.

And here's a bit of reassuring news that deserves repetition and a good hand from the gallery:

American merchant shipyards in the first six months of this year delivered more tonnage than in all of 1942!

The delivery of 168 vessels aggregating 1,676,500 deadweight tons in June brought total production for the first half of 1943 to 879 ships, totaling 8,818,822 dead-weight tons—as against a 1942 record of 747 vessels of 8,089,732 tons.

California played a big part in achieving that enviable record. The California Shipbuilding Corporation at Wilmington won high honors for a single yard by delivering 20 Liberty ships in one month. And the two yards of the Permanente Metals Corporation at Richmond, which will be operated in the future as a single unit, delivered 25 ships between them.

With our air and Naval forces apparently well on the way to winning the victory over submarine packs of the enemy, that kind of ship production will go far toward turning the tables—and giving us a dominant play of arms on all fronts. We hope that the men and women on the production line recognize the great contribution they are making to the ultimate victory—and that they never cease firing until the word is flashed over the wires that American troops have occupied Tokio and Berlin.

Magnificent, colorful, spectacular, aflame with all the grandeur and the fury of the lawless plains. Columbia's mighty Technicolor Western, "The Desperadoes" is now playing at the Lomita theatre. With Randolph Scott, Glenn Ford, Claire Trevor, Evelyn Keyes and Edgar Buchanan heading a superb cast, the new film is a splendidly splashed epic of the old West, an adventurous romance which thunders across the screen to the tune of crackling gunfire and roaring hoofs.

"I know I will miss meeting my many customer friends," says Mrs. Smith, "and I want them all to know how very much I appreciate their past courtesies. They made my work very pleasant through their kindly cooperation. While I will regret that I shall not be seeing them so often hereafter, I am gratified that I can turn my work over to such a competent advertising woman as Miss Keller. We have worked together this week, and I am confident that all my clients will be pleased with the service Miss Keller will give them."

"China" Opens Saturday At Plaza With Ladd, Bendix and Young

The flaming blend of war and wanton destruction that has marked the onward rush of Nippon's little demons inspired the exciting battle drama that opens at the Plaza theater Hawthorne, Saturday, potent and heroically filmed "China."

Starring Alan Ladd and Loretta Young and directed by John Farrow, the man who gave us the epic, "Wake Island" and the stirring "The Commandos Strike at Dawn," this latest picture of our times is a thrilling and heady cocktail of romance, fighting and high adventure. It's mighty strong medicine. When Jap planes roar overhead in the picture, bombing and gunning innocent women and children and wrecking a peaceful village... well, you can get mad without counting to ten and there'll be no blame from anybody this side of Tokyo.

Ladd and his pal, William Bendix (remember him as the lovable, tough Marine in "Wake Island"), and oil men from Oklahoma who find themselves and their truck directly in the path of a Japanese advance. They team up with Loretta Young, thunders across the screen to the tune of crackling gunfire and roaring hoofs.
