One lucky soldier is being entertained by hostess Merle Oberon at New York's popular rendezvous for servicemen in Sol Lesser's star-studded "Stage Door Canteen," which United Artists open Sunday at the Torrance Theatre.

'Stage Door Canteen' Opens Sunday At Torrance With 48 Top Stars

The greatest show on earth has arrived! Opening Sunday at the Torrance theater through United Artists release, Sol Lesser's "Stage Door Canteen" is splashed with fun, glamour, laughs and thrills and an unprecedented array of star entertainers of screen, stage and radio who in no small way contribute to the most outstanding motion picture ever to come out of Hollywood. Mr. Lesser's keen showmanship, highlighted by the screen debut of Katharine Cornell, affords the public a tremendous thrill at its first view of colorful atmosphere of New York's popular entertainment rendezvous for servicemen of the United Nations, where nightly these same star personalities perform various duties as entertainers, bus boys, hostesses, food servers, hatercheckers and dishwashers.

Katharine Hepburn, Helen Hayes, Tallulah Bankhead and Merle Oberon are just a few hostesses on hand to make our boys feel at home; Katharine Cornell and Lynn Fontanne serve them coffee and sandwiches at the food bar; Alfred Lunt, George Raft and Ned Sparks empty trays and clean tables; and a host of stellar performers including Ray Bolger, Gracie Fields, Ethel Merman, Ethel Waters, Gypsy Rose Lee, Ed Wynn, Harpo Marx provide the best in entertainment to give our fighting men a rousing send-off. Smash hit tunes are offered by Bandleaders Kay Kyser, Benny Goodman, Freddie Martin, Count Basie, Xavier Cugat and Guy Lombardo and their musical contingents and the celebrated violinist, Yehudi Menuhin, plays two classical selections.

Well keyed to the glamorous setting of "Stage Door Canteen" is the simple and poignant love story of an American soldier about to leave for overseas duty and a beautiful young Broadway actress who hostesses at the canteen. When he meets the lovely "Eileen" (Cheryl Walker) it's love at first sight for "Dakota" Smith (William Terry). But Eileen isn't interested in soldier boys. A career is first on Eileen's list and she hopes to meet some Broadway producers at the canteen. When she awakens to the meaning of the war and realizes finally that she loves Dakota, there's little time left for them to be together.

Director Frank Borzage has done a masterful job in capturing the spirit of our fighting forces enjoying the hospitality and top notch entertainment of the servicemen's haunt. The performances of Cheryl Walker, William Terry, Marjorie Riordan and Lon McCallister, the unknown whom Sol Lesser starred in "Stage Door Canteen," rate special accolades. The stars, who include Judith Anderson, Kenny Baker, Tallulah Bankhead, Ralph Bellamy, Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, Ray Bolger, Ina Claire, Katharine Cornell, Gracie Fields, Lynn Fontanne, Virginia Grey, Helen Hayes, Katharine Hepburn, Hugh Herbert, Jean Hershold, Allen Jenkins, George Jessel, Otto Kruger, Gypsy Rose Lee, Alfred Lunt, Aline MacMahon, Elsa Maxwell, Harpo Marx, Yehudi Menuhin, Ethel Merman, Alan Mowbray, Paul Muni, Merle Oberon, George Raft, Lanny Ross, Martha Scott, Cornelia Otis Skinner, Ned Sparks, Ethel Waters, Johnny Weissmuller, Arleen Whelan, Ed Wynn and six famous orchestras of Count Basie, Xavier Cugat, Benny Goodman, Kay Kyser, Guy Lombardo and Freddie Martin, were greeted with such wild enthusiasm by the audience that we guarantee you'll be seeing "Stage Door Canteen" not once but many times.

BIRTHDAY IS NOTED
The birthday anniversary of E. W. Quimby was an enjoyable occasion recently when Mrs. Quimby entertained at dinner. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hunter McConnell and daughters, Betty and Marianne, of San Pedro.

ATTEND PICNIC

Signe Hasso's Debut Delight

Signe Hasso, alluring young Swedish "find," has finally started her Hollywood career, after mastering the English language. Signe makes her debut in the delightful Technicolor comedy, "Heaven Can Wait," which Ernst Lubitsch produced and directed for 20th Century-Fox. She is cast as a vivacious French maid whose arrival disrupts a staid Fifth Avenue household of the Gay Nineties.

In the picture, which opens Sunday at the Plaza theater, Hawthorne, Signe is engaged to tutor the young son of the family. This she does all too well—not only does her teaching cover the language but his extracurricular activities, too well! Gene Tierney and Don Ameche head a large featured cast in the picture.

DR. DONALD B. TRESIDDER, who recently succeeded Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur as president of Stanford University, Dr. Tresidder is Stanford's fourth president since the founding of the University.
