THE CHRISTIAN YOUTH CRUSADE . . . and the old-fashioned revival in the big tent a half block south of Carson on Border ave., continues, according to Pastor Paul H. Perry. There have been several conversions, mostly among the youth. Evangelist Pipkin will speak Sunday morning on the subject, "Are We Going Over or Under?" Sunday evening his subject will be, "America Beholds the Ripening Grapes of Wrath." He will speak on equally interesting subjects every evening. Mrs. Pipkin and her marimba are a most interesting feature of every service. The service begins each evening at 7:45, except Saturday.

Teamwork, teamwork, joy of achievement, etc., are not entirely dependent upon victory, important as that may seem at the time. Let's not permit the disappointment of the moment to blind us to the sterling qualities which we have seen manifested in our track teams and in our student body during this entire season. Let us treasure this spirit of loyalty and cooperation and reinforce it wisely, remembering that new opportunities will continually appear in which we can prove our worthiness for victory as well.
