

O.E.S. Line Officers Hold Advance Night At Masonic Temple

Thursday, June 15, was advance night for the line officers of the Order of Eastern Star. A large crowd was in attendance, with Mrs. Ethel Gray, Grand Deputy of the 67th District, and visitors present from Inglewood, Hermosa, Redondo, San Pedro and Wilmington chapters.

The officers, Mrs. Naomi Brown, acting worthy matron; Jack Miller, acting worthy patron; Mrs. Hazel Fossom, acting associate matron; Frank Brown, acting associate patron; Mrs. Harriette Condon, acting conductress; Mrs. Billie Kerber, acting associate conductress, completed their evening's work very well and were highly complimented by the Deputy. Just before initiation, Leonard Babcock sang, "Near to the Heart of God." Mrs. Naomi Brown was very proud that on this evening she had the pleasure to initiate Charles Young, a very close friend of her family. The chapter room was very beautiful with baskets of fuchsia and gladiolus.

At the close of the evening the group adjourned to the banquet hall, which was a veritable garden scene. Each line officer had a trelis back of her chair and her table was decorated with the color appropriate for her four years as line officer. Naomi Brown, chartreuse and fuchsia; Hazel Fossom, turquoise and silver; Harriette Condon, red and gold. Each table service was marked with miniature dolls dressed in the various colors. Mrs. Teresa Hill and Mrs. Sally West, co-chairmen, and their committee are to be highly complimented on their many hours of work, which everyone present enjoyed.

Later officers and members returned to the chapter room to watch the officers open the many gifts they had received from other officers, members and friends.

CATHOLIC PARTY THIS EVENING

Hostesses for this evening's Catholic Ladies' card party are Mrs. Forrester and her committee, Mmes. Morin, Emery, Kitto, Elder, Landerville, G. Fredericks, Don Spangler, Epps and Dorigan. ### Nuptial Rites Read June 9 At Beach City

Miss Jean Eulora Yoder, daughter of Mrs. Thomas R. Yoder, became the bride of Herbert Richard Gould, United States Navy, in a double ring ceremony performed Friday evening, June 9, at First Christian church, Redondo Beach. Rev. Leonard D. Babcock officiated. White stocks, larkspur and tapers in tall candelabrum formed a pretty background for the ceremony. Lovely in a simple white silk jersey gown with long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline, the bride wore a Juliet cap with pearl tiara. Her bridal illusion veil was edged with lace and she carried an orchid surrounded with white carnations and fern.

Girls Are Ushers

Gloria Fenwick, as maid of honor, wore a pale pink, embellished organza and carried pink roses with matching rosettes in her hair. Shannon Greenwood was flower girl in pale blue chiffon. James T. Horton of Willowbrook was the bridegroom's attendant. Jo Harestad and Marcella Rous, wearing identical gowns of blue-gray tulle, complemented with corsage bouquets of pink carnations, were ushers.

Juliette Johnson played the wedding marches and the accompaniment for Naomi Edwards, who sang, "Somewhere, Somehow, Sometime" and "In to the Dawn With You."

A reception at the bride's home, 2815 Arlington ave., was attended by 175 guests. White and salmon pink snapdragons were used for the refreshment table, where a beautiful cake was cut. Mrs. Yoder received her guests in a light blue costume with matching accessories and Mrs. Laura E. Gould, mother of the bridegroom, formerly of Willowbrook and now of Oakland, wore navy with white accessories. The mothers' corsages bouquets were Talsman roses and gladiolus.

FLAG DAY OBSERVED BY WOMEN'S GROUP

Last Tuesday evening about 42 guests and members of the Catholic Daughters of America met for a potluck dinner in St. James Hall, Redondo Beach. The occasion, although a social affair, was in observance of Flag Day. The table decorations were in red, white and blue, with small American flags in the centerpiece. Despite wartime shortages and rationing, the menu was varied and plentiful. After dinner, Mrs. Mary Boynton, worthy grand regent, led in a salute to the flag and one stanza of the national anthem. The program was then turned over to Mrs. Mary Stoeger, chairman for the evening, who reminded all to pray more earnestly for our loved ones in service and for the speedy success of the European invasion and to hope that the casualty list would be short. She closed her remarks by reading an inspiring essay on the flag and its meaning. Games occupied the balance of the evening.

NEWS OF WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

To our many friends everywhere: We cordially invite you to be our guest this Sunday evening, June 25, at our installation of officers, to be held at 8 o'clock at Moose Hall. This is the only public meeting of the year and we are anxious to have you join us in our festivities.

Sheldon-Fritz Rites Read Last Sunday At Lutheran Church

First Lutheran church was a setting for the wedding Sunday, June 18, of Mrs. Patricia Fritz of Redondo Beach and formerly of Torrance, and Matt Sheldon of Lone Pine. Rev. F. D. Meehling officiated in the presence of 200 guests.

Beautifully attired in a beige formal and carrying white and pink roses, the bride was attended by Martha Larson of Whittier, who wore a blue print formal, gardenias and pink roses. Mrs. Clara Conner, in a blue crepe formal, complemented by a corsage bouquet of gardenias and roses, served as bridesmaid. Little Donna Lee Jackson, in a dainty white organza frock, was flower girl. She carried an old fashioned nosegay of pink and white roses. The bridegroom's attendants were Harold Larson of Whittier, an intimate friend of the principals for the past 25 years, and Earl Conner. Preceding the ceremony, Norma Anderson sang two selections.

A reception followed at the church parlors, where a beautifully decorated cake was cut by Evelyn Boyer, daughter of the bride. Mrs. Anna Carlson poured.

Upon their return from a honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon will make their home at 520 No. Elena st., Redondo Beach. Mrs. Sheldon, who has been associated for the past 11 years with the Lutheran church and Ladies' Aid, has hosts of friends in Torrance and Redondo Beach. She is a member of Rebekah lodge and Royal Neighbors in the beach city. Her son, Knute Fritz, is at present with the armed forces in North Ireland.
