

MORE—OR LESS

When a recipe calls for more or less—cream sauce than the size of your family requires, this simple arithmetic from home economists will help you to adjust it accordingly: A recipe calling for one cup of milk yields about 1 1/2 cups of sauce. One-third of a cup is plenty for each person.

Uniform Crisis May Stop Bus Service Here

If Torrance and Lomita do not have bus service tomorrow, it is because the drivers do not have uniforms.

An ultimatum by Traffic Engineer Charles F. Koors that drivers be in uniform today, Sept. 7, or be discharged, will be enforced, he said, "even if it means cutting down the base for a few days until we can get more drivers."

The drivers were given notice to secure uniforms...

Dr. J. F. Ray to Talk at Local Church on Sunday

Dr. J. Franklin Ray will be the guest minister Sunday in Central Evangelical Community church. Dr. Ray is professor of systematic theology at the Los Angeles Baptist Seminary. Previous to this appointment, he spent 25 years in the Orient in missionary work.

"Seeing the King," based on Isaiah's stirring vision of the sixth chapter, will be the visiting minister's morning sermon.

No Advance in Cigarette Prices, O.P.A. Declares

The current shortage of cigarettes has resulted in some retailers advancing their prices on so-called "popular brands," L. M. Kearns, O.P.A. price specialist, said today.

Such increases are unauthorized as retailers are still frozen at the price they charged during March, 1942. The new price new federal excise tax increase, he said. One cent will cover the new tax on either one or two pack sales.

Advance Rent Payment Refunds Being Ordered

Thousands of Los Angeles and Southern California war workers who are tenants in housing recently constructed with priority assistance from the National Housing Agency and War Production Board will receive advance rent payment refunds under a new amendment to the War Relocation Authority law.

New amendments announced, effective Sept. 1, prevent charging of retaining "security de-tal dwellings. Builders of newly constructed war housing with priority ratings will be required not to exceed $10 for recovery of such removable objects as keys and ice trays, Barry said.

Builders may petition OPA for permission to require a deposit not to exceed $10 for recovery of such removable objects as keys and ice trays, Barry said.
