

Randolph-Smith Bethrothal-Told Sunday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Smith of 1407 Cota ave. have announced the engagement of their daughter, Virginia Doris, to Mr. Donald Burton Randolph, a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Donald Randolph of Chula Vista. The announcement was made at a dinner party Sunday at the home of the bride's parents, where covers were placed for 18 Los Angeles and Torrance relatives and friends. A profusion of pastel flowers created an effective background and a decorated cake inscribed "Virginia and Don, congratulations" was cut.

The bride-elect has been serving with the WAVE and is now stationed at San Diego, where she is a parachute rigger. Her fiancé is an aviation metalsmith 3/c, U.S.N.R., stationed at San Diego.

She was graduated from Torrance High school with the class of summer '33 and was graduated from Frank Wiggins Trade school, where she majored in designing. Subsequently she was employed as head of a department at an exclusive Los Angeles women's apparel manufacturing house.

Allen-Sommers Vows Exchanged Sunday At Afternoon Rites

In a simple ceremony performed Sunday afternoon by Rev. George C. Elder at his home in Temple City, Miss Emma Jean Sommers became the bride of Hugh C. Allen. Beautifully attired in a dusty rose afternoon dress with brown accessories, complemented with an orchid corsage, the bride was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lawrence Sommers, Jr., who wore aqua with contrasting accessories and an orchid corsage. Lawrence Sommers, Jr., was the bridegroom's attendant. The ceremony was attended by the immediate relatives of the principals. A dinner party for 11 followed at Old Orchard Inn, Alhambra.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sommers, Sr., of 2108 Arlington ave. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Allen of 1447 Post ave. Both were graduated from Torrance High school and he attended Compton Junior college.

She is employed at National Supply Co. as a mimeograph operator. He is a journeyman electrician at Consolidated Shipyards. They will live at 1229 1/2 Arlington ave.

Pre-Nuptial Shower

Among the pre-nuptial courtesies given for Mrs. Allen was a shower last week at the home of Mrs. R. B. Hill, 2013 Arlington ave. Arrangements of dahlias were used throughout the rooms and a decorated cake and other refreshments were served. An evening of games was enjoyed with Mrs. Robert F. Lessing as prize winner. Those present were the honoree and Mmes. Olga Wesley of Wilmington, J. R. Carrick, Ray Steuby, Robert F. Lessing, Ruby McGinley, Helene Yaskin and the Misses Cecelia Reiner, Barbara Evans and Ramona Debra.

Miscellaneous Shower

The bride was again complimented when Mrs. Lois Jayne Peterson entertained Wednesday evening at a miscellaneous shower at her home, 1447 Post ave. Shower games were the diversion with Mmes. Ralph Pettitt and Ray Kluseman as prize winners. A beautifully decorated cake, inscribed "Congratulations to Hugh and Jean" and other party refreshments were served to the honoree and Mrs. Lawrence Sommers, Sr. Lawrence Sommers, Sr., Sara Murray, Emma Merriam, Ralph Pettitt, Ruth Tabor, C. B. Mitchell, Homer Morgan and R. B. Hill, all of this city; Alta Keplinger, of Long Beach; Ray Kluseman of Los Angeles; the Misses Betsy Morgan, Carolyn Mitchell, Kay Turner, of Torrance and Doris Kluseman of Los Angeles.

HIGH SCHOOL P.T.A. PLANS MEMBER DRIVE

"Invest in youth through parent-teacher membership" will be the theme when next week Torrance High School P.T.A. begins its drive to enroll men and women of the community who are interested in children as members of the national congress organized to promote their welfare. Mrs. A. C. Turner, membership chairman, will be assisted with details of the campaign by a student committee.

The High School P.T.A. is proud of its accomplishments of last year. With 293 members enrolled, waste paper drives were the only additional money raising events necessary to purchase a service flag for the school, donate $100 for the upkeep of the school's service plaque, buy a trumpet for the music department and furnish glasses for a student whose progress was hampered by poor vision.

It is hoped that this year's goal of 500 members will be reached so that much more may be accomplished for the good of the young people in whose hands rests the future of our nation.

High School P.T.A. At Annual Tea for Teachers, Parents

"My plea is for unity" said Harold E. Perry, principal of Torrance High school, when he welcomed over 100 parents at a reception given the teachers Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Perry urged the P.T.A. to take a definite stand on the question of remaining under the Los Angeles school system or establishing a local system, remembering always that the best interests of our young people should determine the choice of a course of action.

Mrs. L. F. Watson, P.T.A. president, also welcomed the parents and teachers, especially those new to the community. Girls League ushers greeted guests and presented them to Mrs. Floyd R. Miller, Mrs. W. H. Tolson, Mrs. E. W. Clark, Mrs. Watson, Miss Elizabeth Parks, Miss Armine Janevas and Mr. Perry. The library was attractively decorated with fall flowers, the tea table being particularly lovely with a lace cloth, tall tapers and silver service. Senior high girls assisting Mrs. Irene Davis and the executive board of the P.T.A. in serving were Bernice Cline, Doris Robinette, Dorothy Sandstrom, Elsa Stanley, Eunice Abramson and Naomi Edwards. Mrs. James Burdett provided a beautiful musical background for the tea and sang two numbers, Carrie Jacob Bond's "A Little Bunch of Honey" and "Wind Song."
