

Rev. Eidsath Takes Pulpit at Moneta Church

At the Communion services on this coming Sunday, Oct. 1, the Moneta Presbyterian church will greet its new leader, Rev. S. Martin Eidsath. Mr. Eidsath is taking the place of Rev. David F. Barnett, Jr., who followed a call to the First Presbyterian church in Klamath Falls, Oregon, last June.

The Moneta church and this and surrounding communities feel extremely fortunate in being able to secure the services of Mr. Eidsath, who is leaving a very successful pastorate at the Southwest Los Angeles Presbyterian church in order to come here. The Moneta church has shown a vigorous growth in all of its departments during the last few years and its field is conceded to be one of the most promising as well as challenging in Southern California.

The new pastor has made considerable place for himself in leadership in the community affairs of the Presbyterian church in Los Angeles and is at the present time serving as the moderator of the Presbytery of Los Angeles, which comprises over a hundred churches from here to San Diego.

Mr. Eidsath and his family will be making their home at the Presbyterian manse on Gardena Blvd.
