Zamperini Air Field Value Is Revealed

Zamperini Airport, on 101 Highway in Torrance, now is a Class 3 Army Airport, and it is the only community air field within a radius of 10 miles which is free from airway traffic, thus permitting its operation after the war.

This statement was made at the Lions club luncheon on Tuesday noon in Civic Auditorium by Lieut. Harold Holmes, commanding the Civil Air Patrol Squadron at the airport. He said that because the Torrance airport does not interfere with airways traffic at Mines Field and other fields, and because a tremendous sum of money has been spent there, every effort should be made to retain the airport after the war. He stressed the CAP program as one which will assure its continuance by the government or the community at the end of the war. He further declared that it is the only Army air field in the nation on which the CAP is permitted to operate now.

Flight Officer Janet McCoy also spoke, giving the history of CAP. It was pointed out that there are now 467 youths and adults training under the CAP at the Torrance Field. The CAP is an auxiliary of the Army Air Force to train a reservoir of pilots and maintenance men for future military or civil aviation. The youths are from 15 to 18

Continuation Classes Underway At High School

By ROBERT MAXFIELD
Continuation classes are in session this semester at Torrance High school under the guidance of John Kennedy. These classes are for the benefit of those students who aid the war effort by working 44 hours a week in the local war plants, and attend school but four hours per week. The continuation classes seek to provide the bare essentials of education to students with this program. The course covers such subjects as English, mathematics, spelling, current events and other subjects that these students will find beneficial. All students wishing to enroll in these classes may do so on Mondays, Tuesdays or Wednesdays between the hours of 8 and 10 a.m. All pupils desiring work permits should apply at the same time and should bring proof of birth, such as birth certificate, baptismal certificate, Bible record, etc.
