

Senior A's And Mothers Honored At Tea

The Senior A's and their mothers were honored at a tea given in their honor by the Senior B's on Wednesday, Jan. 16. Mrs. D. J. Godard, mother of the Student Body President, Gerald Godard and Mrs. O. R. Hill, mother of John Hill, president of the Senior A class were honored guests. Addresses of welcome were given by Leroy Wright and Bill Johnson, home-room presidents of the Senior B class.

The program consisted of a trumpet solo by Merwin Jarratt, Tschalkowsky's Concerto, a piano solo by Nancy Whyte, Chopin's Waltz, and a sextette from the Girls' Glee Club singing "Thine Alone" by Victor Herbert, directed by Miss Clara Stors, vocal teacher.

Senior B hostesses were Charlotte Ellis, Doris Quaglin, Shirley Saffren, Emogene Held, Wanda Moore, Terry McIntire, Lillian Mankych, Gerry Faren, Myrna Fossum, Kay Moffit, Anta Wellman, and Nellie Gray. Those who served were Betty Sommers, Juanita Quick, Beverley Traub, and Marilyn Hanni. Class sponsors were Mrs. Edith Kelly, Miss Marguerite Jones, and Miss Irene Mills.

W'46 Wins Scholarship Honors Here

The graduating Senior class has been outstanding for its athletic prowess, but only this semester has it stood out for membership in the school scholarship society. Since the California Scholarship Federation recognizes achievement in any type of school work, boys in vocational courses have equal opportunity with academic students in gaining membership in the scholarship society.

W'46 qualifies as members, Edward Bernasconi, William Dietl, Jeanette Farquhar, Gerald Godard, John Hill, Wayne Howis, George Poh, James Standifer and Robert Thomas.
