

De Molays Plan Installation Saturday Night

On Saturday night, March 16, at 8:00 p.m. Past Master Councilors of Torrance DeMolay Chapter will install the newly appointed officers of the recently reactivated Torrance Chapter, Order of DeMolay.

The chapter had become inactive in 1942, shortly after the outbreak of the war, when most of the young men were joining the armed forces of the United States.

According to Homer Morgan, the chapter "Dad," the officers to be installed are as follows: William Collins, master counselor; Frank Dominguez, senior counselor; Donnie Cook, junior counselor; Leonard Babcock, scribe; William Rogers, senior deacon; Tommy Johnston, junior deacon; Paul Mitchell, senior steward; William Tolson, junior steward; David Babcock, chaplain; Robert West, almoner; William Morgan, marshal; Eugene Northway, standard bearer; Merwin Jarrett, orator; Jay R. Stroh, Eugene Stirling, Robert Suttle, Eddie Fortin, Paul Findley, Edwin King, Phillip Anas, preceptor; and Frank Paour, Jr., sentinel.

Friends of the Order of the Order of DeMolay are cordially invited to attend the open installation ceremony at Torrance Masonic Temple. Following the installation, refreshments will be served in the banquet room.

ART CRAFT CLUB AT DEROUIN HOME
At a meeting of the Art-Craft Club, held Friday evening in the home of Mrs. G. J. Derouin, officers to be elected during the evening term were elected. Mrs. Glenn Middleton will be president and Mrs. L. E. Snodgrass, secretary-treasurer.

Following the business session the group spent the evening fashioning earrings from sea shells. Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

Mrs. C. D. Adams will entertain the club on March 29 at her home, 2427 Abalone ave.

AT BABCOCK CABIN
Mrs. Glen Babcock and her daughter, Marie, accompanied by Mrs. Babcock's sister-in-law, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Blair, of Los Angeles, spent the weekend at their cabin in San Gabriel Canyon.

Fashion Show Participants Are Commended

Credit for the success of the recent fashion show, sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club for the benefit of the Y.W.C.A. fund, should go to the various chairmen and committees in charge. Chairman of the steering committee was Mrs. Carl Forikum, while Mrs. Robert Klink was in charge of models and Mrs. Vernon Rumbold was responsible for the refreshments. Decorations were effectively completed by Mrs. J. P. Montague, Mrs. Jack McCune and Mrs. H. P. Jensen.

Models were: Mmes. R. B. Trezise, B. H. Smith, Mulahey, Cecil Clayton, Muriel Floyd, John Ritchie, P. Jensen, Garton, William E. Blair, J. P. Montague, William H. Smith, Ralph Rugraff, Leroy Pulliam, Ruth Wallace, Jack Norris, E. H. Lilienthal, W. O. Clausing and Helen Coast. Showing the styles of the younger set were Claudia Smith, Leslie Jeanne Trezise, Steven Smith, Martha Ann Floyd, Connie Bergen, Violet and Doris Popovich, and Sandra DeHaven.

During the evening honored guests of the Juniors introduced were: Mrs. J. G. Tarr, chairman of L. A. Junior Membership; Mrs. C. F. Anderson, president of L. A. District junior membership; Mrs. P. F. Seidel, 2nd vice president L. A. District; Miss Margaret Bon Eske, recording secretary, L. A. District; Mrs. Gerald Lechner, registrar L. A. District and Mrs. B. Harry Marlowe, federation coordinator.

Juniors assisting at the door and in serving refreshments were: Mmes. Von Bergen, Gil Derouin, Carl Quayle, Frank Farrell, Adrian Thornberry, James Miller, O. W. Hakanson, Albert Coast, G. A. Bradford, E. L. Russell, Art Hussen, R. M. Rogers, R. Sandstrom, and Miss Dorothy Jensen.

Background music during the evening was provided by Mrs. William Faekiner and Miss Elsie Miller.

YOUNG PEOPLE ATTEND CHORUS IN SAN PEDRO
The Rhapsodian Chorus, directed by Alexander Forbes, under the supervision of the Los Angeles Playground department, is inviting all men and women between the ages of 18 and 29 to participate in the activities of this popular group. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hagaman and Mrs. Marie Kiddlighter of this city are members and wish others to represent Torrance. Numbers in rehearsal include "Dancing in the Dark," "The Seven Last Words," "In a Persian Garden" and other songs.

Other Rhapsodian activities planned are a dance to be held soon, recordings and a radio program.

Rehearsals are being held at 7:30 o'clock every Monday evening at the Cabrillo Beach Recreation Building, San Pedro.

BETSY ROSS CLUB AT ENJOYABLE PARTY
Among the enjoyable card parties of the week was that sponsored by the Betsy Ross Star Club and held Saturday evening in Masonic Temple. J. E. Miller was door prize winner and game prizes were received by E. White and Mrs. Inez Allen, pinochle; Mmes. Bertha Dunbar and O. J. Batsch, auction and Mrs. Alice Mort and Frank Krewok; concert. Helen Miller served as chairman of arrangements for the evening. Saturday evening, March 30 has been set as the date for the next card party.

DINNER GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fess entertained at dinner recently for Mr. and Mrs. Jay Allen, of Huntington Park and formerly of Torrance and Mrs. Fred Hansen and Miss Cassie Hansen.

She is now a member of the faculty at Whittier high school. Her husband, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Woodcock, of 2431 Cabrillo ave., recently returned from overseas service with the United States Marine Corps Reserve, and now is stationed at San Diego. He was graduated from Torrance high school, attended Compton Junior College and UCLA and trained with the V-12 at USC.

FAMILY REUNION IS ENJOYED HERE
Weekend guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Dale H. Wright, of 1748 Martina ave., were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hamman, of Burlington, Kan.

A family dinner party Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Richhart, 1424 W. 218th st., honored the Earl Hammans, Mrs. Lanie Hamman and Mrs. Harry Henry, also of Burlington. Mrs. Lanie Hamman is the sister of Mrs. Richhart and Charles E. Theobald, of this city.

EXCHANGE VOWS . . . Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arthur Woodcock who were united in marriage Saturday evening in impressive rites held in Methodist Church, Gardena. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Woodcock, of this city and her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Artigue, of 17305 So. Vermont ave.

Whittier will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arthur Woodcock (Frauches Lorraine Artigue) who were married Saturday evening in Methodist Church, Gardena. Edward John Artigue, of Gardena, accompanied his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Lovely in a fitted gown of white satin, fashioned with cap sleeves, with which she wore long white gloves, the bride carried gardenias and orchids. A headpiece of white satin, seed pearls, maline and Val lace completed her bridal ensemble.

Mrs. Robert Crist, of Gardena, as matron of honor, wore aqua crepe and carried pink rose buds. The bridesmaids, Miss Marilyn Nash, of Visalia and Mrs. Alveretta Atkinson, wore gowns of turquoise crepe with bouquets of red roses. Long net gloves complemented the attendants' gowns.

Roy Butts, of Palo Alto, a fraternity brother, was the bridegroom's attendant and Robert J. Thomas and Lt. Don Ragno, USN, ushered.

Mrs. Ellen Jenkins played the wedding marches and the accompaniment for Mrs. Marion Cornish, who sang.

At the reception which followed at the church, Mrs. Artigue received her guests in an aqua crepe gown and orchids and Mrs. Woodcock wore cream lace and an orchid corsage.

Subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Woodcock left for a honeymoon trip to Santa Barbara and San Francisco and upon their return will be at home at 845 Whittier ave., Whittier.

The bride was graduated from Gardena high school, Compton Junior College and UCLA, where she received her Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education.

She is now a member of the faculty at Whittier high school. Her husband, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Woodcock, of 2431 Cabrillo ave., recently returned from overseas service with the United States Marine Corps Reserve, and now is stationed at San Diego. He was graduated from Torrance high school, attended Compton Junior College and UCLA and trained with the V-12 at USC.

MISS RUTH KERRER FETED ON NATAL DATE

TORRANCE WOMAN'S CLUB PLANS NOW READY FOR ANNUAL CARNIVAL SATURDAY

A beautiful oil painting a gift of the artist, Neil Smith, and a handsome wool blanket have been added to the many valuable and useful prizes to be given away Saturday evening, March 16, during Torrance Woman's Club second annual carnival, at their clubhouse, 1423 Engracia ave. The carnival, planned for entertainment of every member of the family, will feature such attractions as bingo, with prizes; a book stall, with best sellers; fortune telling, a magic tree, laden with a variety of gifts; and booths with attractions for everyone. A door prize to be selected from a long list of gifts suitable for every taste, will be given away every hour.

Highlighting the many attractions will be the coronation of the successful contestant in the "Miss Torrance of 1946" contest, sponsored by Torrance Junior Sprout Home Setting for Girls' Club Meet.

The home of Melba Sprout, 1327 Beech ave., was the setting for a lovely meeting of a girls' club, known as the Zam Zam Club, last Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Sprout's sister, Anna Hamack, of Lomita, as hostess.

Bids were distributed for the club's annual spring sport dance to be held at the Palos Verdes Country Club, April 6. Cal Stevens' six-piece band will provide music from 9:00 p. m. to midnight.

The Zam Zam Club was organized 15 years ago in Redondo Beach for the purpose of continuing friendship ties among a group then graduating from high school. It has since expanded its membership several times and its active membership list includes addresses in several cities of Los Angeles county, while during war time, inactive memberships listed addresses in many other parts of the United States.

Attending last week's meeting was President Jean Ashmore, Georgiana Bolton, Helen Margaret Cordis, Madelyn Crippin, Gladys Forbes, Maxine Moore, Beth Goodwin, Marjorie Kruse, Susie McClellan of Gardena; Dorothy Hubbell and Doris Lee of Compton; Marie Higgins and Winifred Loughborough, of Los Angeles; Marion Cassine of Redondo Beach, and the hostesses.
