Don't take a chance—have your shoes fitted

An Important Message to Torrance Students

The inspection in Torrance schools last week revealed that an alarming number of girls were wearing shoes that endangered their health.

It was pointed out to these girls by the schools that the sloppy type of shoe gave their feet no support, and made it impossible for their feet to grow and develop . . . to build the proper foundation for posture!

The schools urged that every girl wear a GOOD OXFORD with a low heel . . . and the shoe be CORRECTLY fitted.

While we have all types of shoes to sell, we heartily agree with the school authorities, and commend them in their efforts to preserve the foot health of the girls of this area.

ONE THING YOU CAN BE SURE OF: Your shoes are properly fitted here . . . and then re-checked by X-RAY, so that we leave nothing to chance or human errors.

THREE ARTS STUDIO ANNOUNCES ADDITION TO ITS MUSIC INSTRUCTION STAFF

Martha Jane Cade Rickard and Edward Thomas Rickard of the Three Arts Studio are pleased to announce that Charles A. Cade of the Pasadena Conservatory of Music will teach violin and clarinet. Cade, brother of Mrs. E. T. Rickard, has arranged his schedule to conform with that of the Three Arts Studio.

Before going to Paris and Berlin in the last war, Cade studied many years under Forrest Schula in Chicago. He also did a great deal of concert work in Kansas City and has made a life long study of the violin and clarinet, in both teaching and concert work. While in the service he spent much time entertaining our boys over there.

On his last visit to Torrance from Pasadena, he said: "I am grateful to have served my country at war and also to have had the opportunity to visit the cities of Waiblingen, Stuttgart, Goppingen, Eslingen, Berlin, in Germany and also Paris and many other interesting cities of France. It gave me no end of pleasure to see and to play on the rare old instruments of France and Germany that are rapidly coming out of their hiding places. Wars may drown out briefly fine music and the arts, but they always come back stronger than ever."

To make your appointments call the Three Arts Studio, 2232 W. Carson st., phone Torrance 842.
