Cathedral Choir Concert Program To Be Presented
 The Cathedral Choir of Los Angeles, nationally known for its splendid Bach and modern music festivals, presented annually in the beautiful Gothic Cathedral of the First Congregational Church in Los Angeles, will appear in a full concert program at the Redondo Union high school auditorium on May 28 at 8:15 p.m.
 The singing ensemble of 1000 voices is one of the finest organizations of its kind in the entire country, organized some 20 years ago by the late John Smallman, it is now under the direction of Arthur Leslie Jacobs, recognized in the East as one of America's most eminent choral directors. The choir will appear in Redondo in its impressive red and white vestments and will present a program which will include excerpts from the great oratorios, some of the finest anthems by contemporary composers and a song cycle for mixed quartet by Charles Wakefield Cadman, with the composer at the piano. Music lovers are urged to attend this outstanding event. Tickets may be procured in advance or at the door on the night of the concert. For further information please call Mrs. Mildred Johnson, 1225 Acacia, Torrance 1081-W.
MRS. E. A. MILES IS CLUB HOSTESS
 The home of Mrs. Earl A. Miles, 2303 Andrea ave., was an attractive party setting when she entertained bridge club members Thursday afternoon.
 As their contribution toward providing food for the starving people of war-torn Europe, members of this club have voted to dispense with luncheons or the serving of refreshments at their meetings.
 Prizes at contract were presented to Mrs. J. J. Millard and Mrs. L. Ahrens.

NUPTIAL SHOWER HONORS MISS ALICE QUILICI
 Honoring Miss Alice Quilici, bride-elect of Steven Darrell, United States Navy, Mrs. A. L. White entertained at an attractively appointed bridal shower at her home on Thursday evening.
 Pastel pink and blue decorations were used for the party appointments and for the buffet refreshment table. Games were enjoyed and prizes awarded for score holders. Many beautiful gifts were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Vern Dapper and son, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hund and Mrs. Zora White, all of Los Angeles; Mmes. Mary West, Rose Shepherd, Florence Cole, Jessie McCormick, Minnie King, Della Moon, Irene Vincent, Florence Hall, Marie Koshak, Millie Ramsey, and Evelyn Graminger, all of Torrance.
BIRTHDAY PARTY SUNDAY FOR HAKANSON CHILDREN
 The birthdays of Gary Hakanson, 8, and his sister, Karen, 5, provided the incentive for a delightful children's party at Torrance City Park-Sunday afternoon.
 The children's guests were Marva and Bobby Jones, Annalee and Billy Graham, Joanne and Joyce Koepcke, Margaret and Lillian Hickey, Donna Evans, Rosalyn Mitchell, Marian Smith, Kay Lynn, Otis Dummer, David Rhone, Bobby and Rodney Hof, Roy Lee and Larry Rusk, Bobby Kelton, Ronnie Pennington, Richard Knappenberger, Ronald Markham, LeRoy Swigart and Mrs. Ellen Hakanson and Mrs. R. L. Swigart, of this city and Vernon Mooney, of Long Beach.
LOLA GIBSON DEATON TO PRESENT RECITAL
 Lola Gibson Deaton, voice teacher of Long Beach and Torrance, will present a group of students in recital at the auditorium of the Baptist Church, Thursday, May 30, at 8 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend the recital which will appear in next week's Torrance Herald.
DINNER PARTY HONORS REBONSON C. BUXTON
 Honoring her husband on the occasion of his birthday, Mrs. B. C. Buxton entertained at dinner Friday at their home, 1500 El Prado. Places were set for the honoree and his sister, Mrs. Clara B. Tyson, of this city and Mrs. Edward Hartman, of Santa Monica.
TO ARLINGTON
 Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Snow, Miss Pauline Snow and Ronald Deaton motored to Arlington Sunday where they visited Mrs. Snow's brother, A. L. Bates, who is seriously ill at Riverside Hospital.

Mrs. A. C. Turner New President Of Torrance High PTA
 The regular meeting of Torrance High School P.T.A. was held in the school library Tuesday, May 14 with the president, Mrs. Frank S. Selover, presiding.
 The inspirational message, by Mrs. E. G. Spratt, was an excerpt from P.T. Magazine entitled: "This Mother Business."
 Miss Irene Mills, program chairman, presented a student panel, "Teen-Agers and their Relation to Parents and Home." The young people agreed that there should be more frankness among parents and their children, and that there should be more participation in good times together. The family car problem, how late a "teen-ager" should be allowed to stay out at night and whether or not the Youth Canteen had helped in solving juvenile problems in Torrance were discussed in a very orderly manner. The discussion was a challenge to teachers and parents to meet the ideas and ideals of the young people. Participating in the panel were Polly Robinson, J. R. Stroth, Elsie Lacy, Zella Bourne, Arline Atwood, Corry Northway and Mary Tibbetta.
 The report of the nominating committee was given and the following ladies were elected to serve during the ensuing year: Mrs. A. C. Turner, president; Mrs. E. G. Spratt, first vice president; Miss Irene Mills, second vice president; Mrs. William H. Tolson, recording secretary; Mrs. Frank S. Selover, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Spiller, treasurer; Mrs. Frances Ban, auditor and Mrs. J. H. Moore, historian.
 Raymond J. Casey, high school principal, discussed the bond election to be held June 4.
 Mrs. J. J. Millard, first vice president of Gateway Council and treasurer-elect of 10th District, in her report on the P.T.A. convention at San Francisco gave such an accurate description of the meetings and conferences that all who heard her were greatly enriched by her experiences.

ENTERTAIN SISTER, SONS
 Visitors this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ward and Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Derouin are the sister of the former, Mrs. John Cole and son, Mervin Cole, of Ellwood City, Pa. Another son of the eastern guest, Charles Cole, recently returned following 28 months' internment in a German prison camp, is also visiting.
