The latter will be marked by a Christmas gift exchange with members supplying gifts valued at $1.00 each. A covered dish dinner and a "secret pal" exchange will be featured.

Vera T. Stokoe, publicity chairman.

DAVID JACOBS JR.

An open house party scheduled for Saturday afternoon and evening, Nov. 30, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Jacobs Sr., 1908 22nd st., will compliment their son, S/Sgt. David Jacobs Jr., A.A.P., and his bride the former Miss Shirley Jean Booth, of Delta, Utah.

A ceremony performed Oct. 29 in Salt Lake City united the couple in marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs will make their home here, where he will resume his association with the Torrance Plumbing business.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Booth, of Delta, Utah, was graduated from high school in that city. Her husband, on terminal leave following 23 months duty in the Philippines was a student at Carlsbad Junior college, Oceanside, when he was called to service. A graduate of Torrance high school, he is an all-time great football player with this school, having made all-Marine honors during his last years in high school.

Enroute to Delta, the young serviceman joined his father in an enjoyable deer hunting trip in Northern Utah.

Woman's Club Plans Delightful Yule Program For Dec. 4

Members of Torrance Woman's Club and their guests are setting aside Wednesday afternoon, December 4 for the annual Christmas tea in the clubhouse.

A delightful "Christmassy" program has been arranged by Mrs. Samuel V. Rauss, program chairman. The singing of popular Christmas carols by the group will be led by Mrs. W. I. Laughon.

Book Review Program Mrs. Rauss will then present Mary Snow, of Los Angeles, in an analytical review of contemporary books on world affairs. Books to be reviewed by Mary Snow on this program will include those with special appeal as Christmas gifts; it is reported.

Mrs. Snow brilliantly reviews the controversial books of today with a courage and charm that creates for her audience a vivid impression of the author's purpose, ideas and opinions. Her sincere, objective approach to a writer's subject is an inspiration to her listeners.

Mrs. W. A. Felker and her committee will have charge of the beautifully appointed Yule tea to be served at the conclusion of the program.

Mrs. C. E. Ward and Mrs. Mildred Evans were hostesses at the Monday evening contract bridge party. Delicious refreshments were served at the conclusion of card play and prizes were presented to high score holders.

When H<sub>2</sub>O—a lot—and hot

Makes life a whole lot brighter

AVERAGE FAMILIES call for hot water 140 times a day! It takes a lot for bathing, shaving, dishwashing, household cleaning, laundering and general freshening up. And when you get that automatic dishwasher and automatic washer you've got your eyes on... it will take a whole lot more!

With an adequately sized automatic gas water heater, you'll have all the hot water you need when you need it. Never a worry about running short. It saves you money, too. For a water heater that's really large enough won't be "overworked"; will actually last longer.

Flame-perfect gas water heating, so speedy, so dependable, is amazingly low in cost. See your dealer or merchant plumber—make sure your home is hot-water-happy.
