

Scout Mothers Of S. G. Troop 472 Outline Activities

The home of Mrs. Frances Snodgrass, 1614 Beech ave., was the scene of an interesting meeting of the Mothers Club of Central church-sponsored Girl Scout Troop No. 472 Tuesday evening when Mrs. Alpha Phipps presided.

The needs of the girls and a discussion of possible assistance from the mothers occupied the group. A visit to Huntington Art Gallery, scheduled for the group, was tentatively set for Easter vacation.

The formation of a teen-agers patrol had been discussed at a previous meeting. Mrs. B. R. Morris was chosen as assistant leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Much Feted During Week's Visit Here

Complimenting her house guest Mrs. Ellis Owen, of Portland and formerly of this city, Mrs. Earl A. Miles entertained at an attractively arranged bridge party in her home Friday evening.

Pastel stock used throughout the rooms created a pretty party setting.

Prize winners at contract included Mesdames A. H. Silligo, W. J. Neelands and C. C. Schultz. In addition, traveling and slam prizes were awarded. Dainty refreshments were served at the conclusion of play.

Attending the party were the honoree and Mesdames C. E. Woodcock, J. A. Eisenbrandt, C. B. Mitchell, R. G. Rogers, R. M. Rogers, A. H. Silligo, W. J. Neelands, L. G. Finlayson, H. P. Smith, George Morgan, Albert Isen, W. I. Laughon and H. E. Massie.

Card Club Reunion On Thursday evening the Miles home also was the scene of a delightful party when former card club members were invited for a reunion.

Following an evening of cards buffet supper refreshments were served to the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Owen and Messrs. and Mmes. C. H. Gail, Los Angeles; M. R. Shearer, South Gate; Thurston McMullen, Lynnwood; R. D. Adams, Hermosa Beach and C. H. Hutcherson of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen also were entertained extensively by friends in Los Angeles and surrounding cities during their week's visit. They left by plane Saturday to return to Portland.

Tau Delta Omegas Plan Card Party, Report 'Gallop'

The home of Rosemary Pryor, 1444 W. 216th st., was the meeting place for Tau Delta Omegas recently.

During the business session plans were outlined for an evening card party set for Saturday evening, March 22 in Torrance Woman's clubhouse in lieu of the dance which originally had been planned.

A handsome radio-phonograph combination will be given away during the evening and many lovely prizes have been provided for winners at bridge, pinochle and 500. The doors will open at 7:30, it is reported. Bridge furnished diversion following the meeting and dainty refreshments were served at the close of play.

Novel Party Held Mrs. Pryor's home was the setting for another delightful affair when she started a "Gallop," a party similar to a "come as you are breakfast." Club members concluded the party in the home of Mrs. Mary Ellen DeVore where coffee and breakfast rolls were served.

Pre-nuptial Shower Is Courtesy For Miss Dorris Wilkes

Complimenting Miss Dorris Jean Wilkes whose wedding to Mr. Paul Wooster will take place next month, Mrs. John Sandberg (Virginia Moore) recently entertained at a prettily appointed miscellaneous shower in the home of the bride-elect.

Pastel stock decorated the rooms and the buffet table, from which dainty party refreshments were served.

Those present were the honoree and her mother, Mrs. J. R. Wilkes and Mesdames Edward Mantych, Richard Ray, Micheal Holly, Glen Hall, John Trippe, Homer Pitts, the Misses Grace Hjerpe, Shirley Justice, Jane Ritchie, Barbara Fullmer, Shirley Phoenix, Dorothy Whiting, Betty Tucker and the hostess.

Recent Guests Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weis were Mrs. Marie Clymer, of South Bend, Indiana; Mrs. Emma Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Patsy Wood, of San Bernardino.

Womens Activities

RECITE NUPTIAL VOWS Dean L. Heglin and his bride, who were married in a recent impressive candlelight doubling ceremony performed in Wee Kirk of the Heather, Glendale.

Woman's Club Annual Carnival Arrangements Approach Completion

As the date for the third annual Woman's Club Carnival approaches, clubwomen are busy arranging details for the various attractions to be offered in the clubhouse on Saturday, March 15.

Planned for the entertainment of every member of the family, the carnival will offer bingo, with prizes; a country store, a garden booth, book stall, a gift shop, sale of cooked foods and baked goods.

Aprons and pot holders will be sold and for those who like to be surprised there will be a grab bag, a white elephant booth, magic tree concession and many other features.

Specially arranged for the younger fry is a gaily decorated circus cake to be given away. In addition, freshly made popcorn and home made candy will be dispensed and a fortune teller with exceptional talent will be available.

Every hour on the hour throughout the afternoon and evening valuable prizes will be given away. Included on this list are a beautifully knitted var-hued wool afghan and a handsome 100 percent wool blanket as well as a handmade quilt and other useful and valuable gifts.

PTA-Sponsored Girls Groups Report Activities

Presenting a delightful program and displaying their handicraft, members of the Blue Birds, from Keystone, known as the Paradise Group, attended the silver tea recently held at Dana Strand. Also attending were members of the Carson street school-sponsored Camp Fire Girls who helped greet guests and served refreshments.

Tickets for the Rocha street PTA minstrel show, scheduled for March 19 at Banning high school, may be procured from Mrs. Elmer Lancaster, Carson st. P.T.A. president. Adults tickets are 50 cents and children's are 25 cents, she reports.

DISASTER PREPAREDNESS

Give gladly to the 1947 Red Cross fund campaign to insure the maintenance of Disaster Preparedness and Relief committees which may some day help to save your life during an emergency, including fire, flood, earthquake or other disaster.

In a beautiful ceremony performed in the Wee Kirk of the Heather, Glendale, Miss Doris Jennings became the bride of Mr. Dean L. Heglin. Rev. R. Perrin, of the First Congregational church, officiated.

Given in marriage by Joseph Stoutimore, a family friend, the bride was lovely in traditional satin fashioned with a train and pearl embroidery detail. Her finger tip veil was draped from a matching coronet and she carried an arm bouquet of gardenias with a detachable orchid corsage.

Mrs. C. J. Heglin, wearing a pale blue formal, was her sister's matron of honor. A cascade bouquet of salmon pink gladioli complemented her gown. Eldest son Day was the bridegroom's attendant and C. J. Heglin, a cousin of the bridegroom, ushered.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Judy Tennant, cousin of the bride, played appropriate selections.

A reception followed at the Los Angeles home of Mr. and Mrs. Stoutimore, where a three-tiered wedding cake was cut. Siblings of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. J. Heglin, a cousin of the bridegroom, lived in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Heglin, a daughter of Mrs. Laura Jennings, Hettinger, North Dakota, was educated in Dakota schools. For the past three years she has been employed in Los Angeles. Her husband, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Till Heglin, of Superior, Nebraska, is a veteran of three years Navy duty. He is attending school in Los Angeles. Out of town guests were Mrs. Laura Jennings of Hettinger, N. Dak.; Mr. and Mrs. Till Heglin, Superior, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Day, Fresno; and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Yarberr, of San Diego.

Keystone Clubwomen Plan Sewing Meet; Regular Program

The Woman's Club of Keystone will hold an all-day sewing meeting tomorrow, Friday March 7, at the clubhouse 127 E. 220th st. The women will meet at 11:00 o'clock and at noon a covered dish luncheon will be served.

Mrs. A. L. Hudson, president, reports that the time will be spent sewing layettes for the Sunshine Mission for Girls. On Wednesday March 12 the regular business meeting will be called to order by the president, Mrs. Hudson.

"Gardens" will be the topic for discussion, according to Mrs. A. C. Stamps, garden chairman, who promises a fine speaker for the occasion.

WYOMING VISIT

Mrs. Della Moon left by plane Thursday for Sheridan, Wyo., where she will enjoy an indefinite visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ola Miles.

San Pedro Church Is Setting For Allen-Suiter Rites

First Methodist church of San Pedro was the scene of the double ring/candlelight wedding Saturday evening when Miss Betty Jane Suiter, of this city, became the bride of Mr. Don Keith Allen, of Lomita.

White stock, sweet peas, larkspur and greenery created an effective background for the rites, which were performed by Rev. Fred Ross, pastor.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in traditional white satin fashioned with lace trimmed yoke and long train. Her full-length veil was draped from a tiara of seed pearls and a single strand of pearls completed her bridal ensemble. Her bouquet was of gardenias with a detachable orchid corsage.

Miss Arlene Bell, as maid of honor, wore pastel blue with matching hat and carried sweet peas with a detachable corsage. The bridesmaid, Miss Bernice Bolling, wearing a rose colored gown with matching hat, carried sweet peas and gardenias. Little Sandra Daniels, of Long Beach, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl in white satin suggestive of the bride's gown.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Maxine Haas sang "Because" and "One Alone." Don Spaan attended the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Bill Stowell, Paul Wanwienfield and George Canel.

A reception followed at the church hall with Mesdames Vern Kiesel and George Holland and the Misses Beeler Corley and Grace Bell assisting as hostesses.

Subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Allen left for a honeymoon trip and upon their return will reside in Wilmington, where he is employed at the Bay View Mill. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Suiter, of 21823 Moneta ave., and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks, of 1735 W. 25th st., Lomita.

Both were graduates of Narbonne high school, summer class of 1945. The bride had lived in Lomita attending school from 1941 to 1945 through high school until her family moved to Torrance a year ago. The bridegroom spent several months overseas with the Navy during the war.

Harry H. Dolley Jr. Takes Lovely Bride In Church Ceremony

Culver City Methodist church was the setting for the recent nuptial rites which united Miss Charlotte Cavett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Cavett, of Dennison, Iowa, and Mr. Harry H. Dolley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Dolley, of 4249 Campbell Dr., Culver City and formerly of Torrance. Rev. Myron Taylor officiated.

The bride, chose as her wedding attire a pale yellow sheer wool suit with contrasting accessories and she carried white roses and hyacinths.

Miss Lois Cavett, her sister's only attendant, was beautifully attired in a smart green suit and her flowers were yellow roses. Rodney Graham, of North Hollywood, attended the bridegroom as best man and George McKeegan, of Hollywood, ushered.

Following the ceremony and the reception at the church Mr. and Mrs. Dolley left for a honeymoon trip to Carlsbad-by-the-Sea. Upon their return they will live in Culver City.

The bridegroom upon completion of training at U. S. Maritime Training Base, Catalina, served on the U. S. Hospital Ship Marigold as junior third officer. During his first voyage he met Miss Cavett, a first lieutenant in the U. S. Army Nurses Corps. He is employed with Swank, Inc., Los Angeles, meanwhile completing his studies in radio and television which he plans to enter. His bride is a surgical nurse on the staff at Hollywood Presbyterian hospital.

Job's Daughters Present Work At Amaranths Meet

Lomita Court No. 61, Order of Amaranth, reports the last regular meeting when Lomita Bethel Job's Daughters exemplified the majority degree.

A beautiful corsage was presented Royal Matron Phoebe Sykes, who with her son, Royal Patron William Sykes, presided at the meeting.

At the conclusion of the ritualistic work members and guests retired to the banquet room where refreshments were served to about 100 including Amaranths, Job's Daughters and parents of the latter group.

Schlick-Grow Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Bronson C. Buxton of 1500 El Prado, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Margo Grow, to Mr. Walter E. Schlick, of this city. No wedding date has been set.

Bon Voyage Party Given By Family Honors Miss Reeve

Following a covered dish dinner enjoyed recently in the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Leetz, 1920 Gramercy ave., Miss Corlita Reeve stood at an attractively decorated table and pulled anchor at a last-minute stop before her departure for a vacation trip to Honolulu. Attached to a gaily beribboned anchor was a diminutive blue and silver traveling bag containing a money gift from family members. The honoree then cut a decorated cake which was a replica of a ship.

Attending the party were Mrs. Martha Reeve, mother of the honoree and Messrs. T. B. Reeve, Marion L. Reeve, Charles Vonderahe, T. C. Turner, William Leetz, Charles Staley and Russell; Gene Kicklighter and Patricia; the Misses Martha Reeve, Ellen Reeve, Pauline Leetz, Corlita Ann Vonderahe, Barbara McNetty, Virginia Reeve, Messrs. Francis Merrow, Willett Young, William Guthrie, Thomas Reeve, Charles Turner and Billy Leetz. Assisting Mrs. Leetz as co-hostesses for the dinner party were Mmes. Gene Kicklighter of this city and Charles Vonderahe, of Brawley.

Fossoms, Millers Recount Vacation Experiences Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. A. Shriver were dinner hosts when they entertained at dinner Sunday evening in the Lomita home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Childs. Guests were members of the Torrance Breakfast club.

Fred Bever, club president, conducted a brief business session when plans were outlined for the next club affair. Highlights of the meeting were enjoyable accounts of their mid-winter vacation given by Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Fossom and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller, who had just returned following a month's motor trip. Their impressions of the Mardi Gras in New Orleans and their plane trip to Cuba were of special interest to the group.

Attending the party in addition to those mentioned above were Messrs. and Mmes. H. Archer Lewis, J. H. Pees, Fred Bever and Miss Joyce and the hosts.

Mrs. Grace Wright Reports Girl Scout Neighborhood Club

A meeting of the Girl Scout Neighborhood club was held Monday evening in the lecture room in the library. Mrs. Grace Wright presiding. Mrs. Olive Dickson, field director and Mrs. Elsie Church, sectional chairman were guests.

Mrs. Vivian Jacobs, neighborhood cookie chairman, reported on the progress of the annual cookie sale now in progress. Mrs. Dickson outlined plans for the Play Day to be held March 15 at Peck Park in San Pedro.

The program is to be under the direction of Senior Scouts, Mountaineer Troops and Mariners, she stated. The parents are invited and many troops are planning pot luck lunches.

Mrs. Church discussed Day Camp, to be held in Torrance Park in July and announced that training classes will be given in May. Mrs. Mary McDonald suggested that the district help the Kate Crutcher Workers by collecting unused doll buggies and clean squares of wool material for the Children's hospital for the use in post-polio cases. Mrs. Wright announced that the Torrance Herald had invited troop scribes and their mothers on a tour of the Torrance Herald office and plant on March 14. Mrs. Vonderahe will instruct the girls on how to write news stories about their troop activities.

TORRANCE HERALD 1336 EL PRADO PHONE 444 Established, Jan. 1, 1914. Published Every Thursday Torrance, Calif. Editor-C. Whyte Grover-C. Whyte Editor-Publisher E. B. Brown, Business Mgr. F. S. Selover, Managing Editor

adjudicated a Legal Newspaper By Superior Court, Los Angeles County.

Entered as second class matter, January 30, 1914, at post-office, Torrance, Calif., under Act of March 3, 1879.

Official Newspaper of City of Torrance Subscription Rates Anywhere in Los Angeles County $2.00 per year Outside Los Angeles County $3.00 per year

Wedding Invitations Announcements Prompt service, correct form on all types of social stationery. Inspect our selection of exclusive Artpoint papers.

TORRANCE HERALD 1336 EL PRADO - PHONE 444

ACCORDION Instruction and Band Practice BETTIE THOMAS Associated with RICHARDS-MARTIN SCHOOL OF DANCING 1915 GRAMERCY AVE. PH. TORRANCE #11-W

IN TORRANCE IT'S THE GAY SHOP Shorty Topper over a perky suit Bright as a row of tulips, charming as a nosegay of violets... a zephyr-soft topper over a contrasting suit. An enchanting collection with the accent on YOUTH. Vibrant colors, exciting styles COATS $29.95 SUITS $29.95 Others to $45 Others to $65 Use Gay 30 to 90 Day or Budget Pay Plan 1319 Sartori Torrance a new you... from TIP to TOE You'll be the best groomed woman this Spring... perfectly out from the top-most curl in your specially styled coiffure... us today for an early appointment. PHONE 1762 Oil of Orchid permanent $5.00 Machineless $6.50 CARSON BEAUTY SHOP Open Evenings by Appointment 1919 CARSON ST. (Near of Barber Shop)

SELECT HER Easter Frock Now! Sandra Sharon "CANDY CANE" DRESS $4.98 little red and white, peppermint candy canes tied up with ribbon bows in a gay print on spun rayon—the three big buttons have candy canes, too, and the adorable ruching looks for all the world like sugar candy ribbon. In gold, aqua and grey. Sizes 7, 8, 9 and 10. TINY TYKE and TEEN AGE SHOPS 1333-1335-1337 El Prado Torrance