Union Auxiliary Reports Interesting Welfare Projects

The Ladies Auxiliary of Local 130, Carpenter Union, of San Pedro met Friday evening in Auxiliary Hall.

Guests of honor at the well attended meeting were Mrs. H. Hoover, president of Los Angeles Local 62, and Mrs. S Webb, also of Los Angeles.

A letter from Mr. J. E. Smits, superintendent of the Harbor General Hospital, acknowledged the auxiliary's gift of a radio for the use of patients in the auxiliary-assigned ward and thanked the women for many other gifts and kindnesses to the convalescents.

Juanita Bolin, hospital chairman, reported that her committee visits their adopted ward to write letters and perform other services.

The auxiliary will give away a handsome quilted comforter at a free dance, scheduled for Saturday, March 15, when Carpenters Union Local 1140 will entertain for members and their families. Proceeds will be used for hospital and other charitable work.

Progress of the Torrance Blue Birds, a girl's group sponsored by the auxiliary, was reported by Helen Armstrong.

Legion Auxiliary Plans Social Night; Reports Activities

The regular business meeting of Bert S. Crossland Unit No. 170 was held in St. Andrew's parish house Monday evening.

Persia Fess reported that she and Velora Murphy, president, had delivered to Long Beach Naval hospital a gift of two radios and 200 magazines.

The next district meeting is scheduled for March 19 at Leland Cupp, Pico. Those wishing to attend are asked to call 989-W.

With community service as the American Legion Auxiliary objective for March the unit has outlined elaborate plans for the next social meeting on Monday evening, March 24. Each member is invited to have her husband and a friend as her guests for the evening. The affair will be of great benefit to citizens of the community, it is felt.

In charge of program arrangements will be Cleora Stanger, Clara Dunbar and Marie Youngken. Refreshments will be served.

Auxiliary members will serve the League of Municipalities dinner at Civic Auditorium on Thursday evening, March 20, it is reported.

WATCH SPEED

High school drivers who have a high toll of accidents are cautioned to their age group, are cautioned to keep their speed down and their eyes on the road ahead during wet weather.

Election of officers was the principal business at the meeting of Brownie Troop 409, held Monday afternoon in the patio of Brownie Leader Mrs. Mary Ann Bradford, 1323 Beech ave.

Mrs. Marion Welton is the troop's co-leader and committee members are Mrs. Melba Sprout, chairman and Mmes. Geraldine Wagner, Ada Jones, Jo Neely and Grace Hinshaw.

Officers selected to serve during the ensuing term are: Jane Wagner, president; Peggy Sprout, vice president; Maurine Bradford, secretary; Sharon Neely, treasurer; Peggy Clouch, scribe; Nancy Welton, song leader; Cathleen Jones, decoration chairman.

Outdoor games were enjoyed by the girls following a period devoted to writing notes to their mothers advising them of the picnic Saturday March 15 in Peck park, in celebration of the 35th anniversary of Scouting.

An investiture for additional members is being planned for the near future. Mothers will be invited.

The newly organized troop will meet weekly in the Bradford patio, it is reported.

The first project for the Junior Woman's club-sponsored troop was the members participation in the annual Scout cookie sale.

Fuchsia Society Head Welcomes Many Guests At Thursday's Meet

C. A. Anderson, president of the South Bay Fuchsia Society, at a regular meeting held Thursday evening in Christ Episcopal church, Redondo Beach, welcomed the many guests who were from Torrance, Lomita, and Gardena.

Mrs. Lucille Bader, president of the Lomita Fuchsia Society, extended an invitation to the group to visit her organization on March 21 at 8:00 p. m. in the Presbyterian church recreational hall, 2154 24th st., Lomita.

Homer Hickman presented the speaker, James Fairclough of the Fairclough Home Gardens, Gardena, a popular speaker noted for his ability as a grower and hybridizer. His informative talk was augmented with colored slides showing many new fuchsia varieties and he answered many questions of fans and amateur growers eager to learn of fuchsia culture.

Mrs. M. M. Cornblith announced that the Torrance Flower show will be held at the Torrance Woman's clubhouse, 1422 Engracia st., on May 24-25, and that the public is invited.

The door prize, a beautiful azalea, was won by Mrs. Grace Olsson, of Manhattan Beach.

The snack bar, festive in St. Patrick colors, was well patronized. A pot-luck dinner and round table discussion was voted for the May meeting. The next meeting, April 3, will be held at the Guild hall of Christ Episcopal church at Redondo Beach.

CATHOLIC PARTY THIS EVENING

Hostesses for this evening Catholic card party are Mrs. Phillip E. Tepper and Mmes. McNeil, Dean, J. E. McMaster, Turner, Thompson, Kicklighter, Hedberg, Foley, Fox, Schnell, Holden and Miss Dorothy Bradshaw.

Everyone is cordially invited. The first door prize will be awarded at 8:00 o'clock and games of contract and auction bridge, pinchle and 500 will follow immediately. Refreshments will be served.

'Henpeck Holler' Folk To Present Hilarious Comedy

"Henpeck Holler Gossip" will be presented in Torrance Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock, Friday evening, March 21, by the Philathea Class of the church.

A hilarious evening is promised, replete with "gals galore, in funny duds, whose gossip and giggles" will provide entertainment for patrons of all ages.

Additional program features will follow and refreshments will be served in the church parlors. A voluntary offering will swell the improvement fund. Everyone is invited.

Prompt service, correct form on all types of social stationery. Inspect our selection of exclusive Artprint papers.
