An elaborate annual spring revue to be presented by Three Arts Studio Tuesday evening, May 27, in Civic Auditorium, will feature a South American carnival. Representing one part of the production will be Rhythmic, Continental, Danza Espanola, Mexican hat dancers and many other Latin American numbers.
 The 'Gay Nineties' will be recalled by people of the community with the presentation of the "good old days" with their minstrel black faces and colorful and beautiful costumes of the carefree days.
 Following the patriotic theme will be six lovely girls in the Waves and Sailors' Sweethearts number, Stars and Stripes Forever, Sailors Hornpipe and many other outstanding scenes and presentations.
 Novelty numbers also on the revue will include tap dancing on the stairs, jumping rope tap, roller skate tap, and Hawaiian gourd dance. A beautiful rose garden fantasy in ballet will please those who enjoy the ballet.
 The designing and making of the costumes and scenery which has required months in the preparation will make the revue a very outstanding event.
 Martha Jane and Edward T. Rickard, directors of the studio, are happy for the outstanding work their students have done during the past year, they state.

Legion Auxiliary In Final Plans For Poppy Day, May 23

Memorial poppies which will be worn here on Poppy Day, May 23, in honor of the dead of both world wars, were received today by Bert S. Crossland unit of the American Legion Auxiliary. The little red flowers came from Sawtelle, where they were made by disabled veterans employed by the Auxiliary.
 "The poppies are crepe paper replicas of the wild poppies which grow in France and Belgium, where so many of the battles of both wars were fought," explained Mrs. Pippet. "They are the poppies which grew between the crosses, row by row, in the World War I battle cemeteries and so became the memorial flower for the war dead. Now they symbolize memory for those who died for America on land, sea and in the air in every part of the world."
 "Each flower is made by a disabled veteran, the paper petals carefully attached to the wire stem and shaped to resemble the blooms with which nature decorated the battlefield graves. The work gives the disabled men something interesting to do during the long hours of hospitalization and convalescence. It occupies their hands and minds, helping them get well. It also enables them to earn money, which builds their morale and makes things easier for themselves and families."
 The poppies are being unpacked and counted by the Auxiliary's poppy committee and made ready for the volunteer workers who will distribute them in all parts of the city on Poppy Day. No price will be asked for the little flowers, but everyone receiving one will be asked to contribute something for the welfare of the disabled veterans, their families and the families of the dead. "The Poppy Day contribution makes possible the Legion Auxiliary's extensive rehabilitation and child welfare work," Mrs. Pippet said.

Eastside BEER

In 1897, two dollars paid to the livery stable man would rent a "rig" like this for a Sunday afternoon. If a "horseless carriage" came snorting down the road, you got out and held your coat over Dobbin's head. McKinley was president. The songs you sang were "A Hot Time in the Old Town" and "Sweet Rosie O'Grady." People were asking for Zobelein's beer, "that East side beer." Yes, sir, that's how Eastside got its name.
