

Yolanda Francis To Appear In Play; Tells Contract Offer

Yolanda Francis, talented young singing artist with the Accordionettes, will appear in "Escape to Autumn" opening Friday for three weeks' run at Call Board Theatre, on Melrose place, with Douglas Cooper as director.

A student with the Accordionettes for the past year, the nine-year-old also has been offered a contract with a motion picture company.

At the conclusion of the play at Call Board Theatre, little Miss Francis will return to the Accordionettes for five programs, one of which will be at Wishnie Ebell Theatre, and others at Long Beach, Anaheim, and Santa Ana.

TO EASTERN CITIES

The Misses Doris and Jean Kresse will leave June 4 for a month's vacation with friends and relatives in eastern cities. Their itinerary includes Milwaukee, New York, Buffalo, Washington, D. C. and Pittsburgh, Pa.

Frank Farrells Entertain Guests From Pennsylvania

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Farrell, of 214th st., have had as their house guest for the past week, Mr. A. B. (Fred) Howard, of Chester, Pa., who came to Los Angeles for the American Bowling Conference. Many points of interest were visited during his stay here, including a trip to the Big Pines camping area, and visits to many radio shows.

On Tuesday evening dinner guests also included Mr. Edward Satchell, of Chester, Pa., and Mr. Leo Cerenzia, of Prospect Park, Pa. On Sunday, Mr. Howard hosted a dinner party at Poncho's in Manhattan Beach before leaving for an extended motor trip home.

ANGLERS ON KLAMATH RIVER

Anglers are still having very good luck on the Klamath River in the Siskiyou County area. Fishermen and their families are camped thickly along the banks of the river in tents and trailer houses.

Miss Lynn Jackson Is Award Recipient At U. C. L. A. Banquet

At the annual formal banquet held last week in Kerchhoff Hall patio, attended by 200 UCLA faculty members and students, Miss Lynn Jackson, lovely daughter of Councilman and Mrs. A. L. Jackson, was presented with an honor award.

Inscribed with her name in gold letters and carrying the school colors, blue and gold in the beautiful leather binding, her honor edition of Southern Campus, school annual, bears the following inscription:

"This honor award is given by the associated students to men and women of the senior class who have best distinguished themselves as Californians in scholarship, loyalty and service to the Alma Mater."

Miss Jackson's campus activities are highlighted as follows: Religious conference board membership, vice presidency of YWCA, Key and Scroll membership (national junior women's honorary society); member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. She also has been tapped for Prytanian, which embraces graduating senior women who have been active as alumnae in UCLA activities.

The popular graduate will return to summer school for post graduate work to obtain her teacher's certificate.

TRENDS IN WORLD SECURITY TRACED IN 15TH ANNUAL DELPHIAN ASSEMBLY

Sigma Rho Chapter of the Delphian society was well represented at the 15th annual Los Angeles District Assembly of Delphian chapters held Friday at Ambassador Hotel.

Mrs. J. R. Gignoux, president, Los Angeles district, opened the morning session held in the hotel theatre and attended by several hundred Delphians.

Highlights of the well arranged program featured California's No. 1 problem, "Conservation and Development of Water Resources," which topic was ably handled by Mrs. John S. MacPhee, of Inglewood chapter.

Mrs. Lena Goble, Pacific Coast director of Delphian chapters, in a stirring address stressed:

1. America's position toward world security.
2. The choice between Communism and war.

Following a delicious luncheon and a delightful entertainment program, Mrs. Gignoux introduced Dr. Ray E. Untereiner, noted economist, as the afternoon speaker.

Tracing the historical background of the many political and economic changes and of governmental rights and limitations as pertaining to individual freedom, Dr. Untereiner's discussion substantiated Mrs. Goble's previous discourse.

Representing the Torrance club were the newly-elected Delphian president, Mrs. Ben H. Weston, Mrs. Eugene L. Cook, a club guest and Mesdames Samuel V. Rauss, F. A. Lincoln, C. M. Rohring, Dean L. Sears, J. T. Oursler, H. R. Burkholder, G. J. Derouin, Howard G. Locke Jr., J. Parke Montague, E. A. Schwartz, Cecil Smith, T. L. King, C. E. Ward and Paul F. Vonderahe.

Seated with the Torrance women were Ruby M. Wilcox, field director and sponsor of Sigma Rho chapter, Mrs. J. N. Greaves, of Redondo Beach and others.

The next meeting of Sigma Rho Chapter will be held at 10:00 a.m. Friday, June 6, instead of Thursday as earlier planned.

This group is invited to attend the installation of Alpha Mu Chapter in Redondo Beach at 10 o'clock Wednesday, June 4. Iron's Cottage, 501 Esplanade. The meeting will be held at . . .

Perry School P T A Installs Officers At May Meeting

Mrs. E. C. Rechlin, president of Redondo Union Council of Parent-Teachers, installed the new officers of the Perry school P.T.A. at its May meeting held Tuesday at the school.

Mrs. W. C. Graham, president, opened the meeting by asking Mrs. George Gorth to lead in the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Mrs. W. J. Pickler gave the inspirational message.

Program consisted of vocal selections by pupils of Mrs. May Dalton's first grade class and Mrs. J. Showler's seventh and eighth graders.

Reports were given by Mrs. George Gorth, ways and means chairman, Mrs. Lloyd Mitchell, neighborhood chairman for Girl Scouts and Brownies, Mrs. F. S. Selover, of First District annual convention and Mrs. A. B. Cowie on the annual State convention.

Following the reading of a letter of resignation as vice president from Mrs. F. S. Selover, Mrs. W. C. Graham was nominated and elected to fill the vacancy.

In a colorful and impressive ceremony the following officers were installed: Mrs. A. B. Cowie, president; Mrs. W. C. Graham, vice president; Mrs. I. Winther, secretary; Mrs. E. L. Blake, treasurer; Mrs. V. J. Mott, historian; Miss Irma Eyerly, auditor.

RECEIVES HONOR . . . Mrs. H. L. Wagner Jr., retiring president of Torrance Junior Woman's Club, has been honored by her election to the district board, C.F.W.C., as parliamentarian of Los Angeles District Juniors.

Torrance Junior Woman's club is honored to have their president, Mrs. H. L. Wagner, Jr., installed as parliamentarian of Los Angeles District Junior California Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Wagner has served the district this past year as American Citizenship chairman. The installation was held Saturday, May 24, at the annual May luncheon at the Glendale Tuesday Afternoon club. There were 345 Juniors present from the 50 Junior clubs in Los Angeles district.

Reports of the district chairman and retiring officers revealed that over $10,000 this year has been given collectively by Los Angeles Juniors to aid children. The goal for district philanthropy was reached since over $2,100 had been given to purchase a station wagon for the Auricular Foundation. Torrance Juniors gave $50 to this project.

A toy station wagon was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Hargrave, heads of the Auricular Foundation, by the Los Angeles Juniors. The additional amount needed for purchase of the station wagon will be taken from the district treasury.

Attending from Torrance were Mesdames J. P. Montague, president-elect; L. A. McCoy, Regis C. Jones, C. H. Bennett, Earle Clayton, Malcolm Garton and H. L. Wagner, Jr.

Mrs. Robt. Leroy, of Alhambra, was installed president; Miss Virginia Kirtz, of Redondo Beach, as first vice president. Retiring president and presiding officer at the luncheon was Mrs. B. Harry Manlove of Eagle Rock Twentieth Century Club Juniors.

VFW Women Report Weekend Poppy Sale, Other Activities

Proceeds from the Veterans of Foreign Wars buddy poppy sale held Friday and Saturday are to be used exclusively for aid and relief of disabled veterans and their dependents, according to Mrs. Mabel Weigand, president of V.F.W. Auxiliary 3251. She states: "These funds will be used for maintenance and expansion of the VFW national home for widows and orphans of veterans at Eaton Rapids, Mich. and to augment expenses incidental to hospitalization of non-compensated veterans."

An example of the year-round concern for veterans' welfare is shown in the splendid hospital report submitted by Mrs. Mary Towler, auxiliary hospital chairman and her assistant, Mrs. Hilma Malin. A total of $2,473.28 was expended by the Torrance group welfare during the period from April 1, 1946 to April 1, 1947, according to the report. In addition $847.81 was expended for rehabilitation and welfare, making a total of $3,321.09 for the year.

All members are asked to wear uniforms and march in the Memorial Day parade. There will be no Sewing club meeting today. Next Thursday the group will meet at the home of Mary Towler, 1826 Andrea avenue.

At Monday evening's meeting, Pauline Coil, wife of Post Commander Vernon Coil, was received into the organization. Mrs. Manlove and Mrs. A. A. Tiley, district senior advisor will be guests of the Torrance Juniors at their installation June 25.
