

Fun And Gayety To Mark Tonight's Queen Coronation

Miss Torrance will be crowned at the Civic auditorium tonight, and the public is invited to attend a gay fiesta from 5 to 11 p.m. to celebrate the occasion. Beginning at 5 p.m. hot dogs, enchiladas, potato salad, pie, cake, coffee, cold drinks will be served to those planning to eat dinner there. There will be popcorn, ice cream cones, Hershey bars as well as balloons for the little folks. Fortune telling, darts, hoop toss, country song, wheel of fortune, lucky coin toss and bingo will be of interest to old and young alike.

Bingo prizes will include chocolates, one and two-pound boxes, cartons of cigarettes, cigars, poker chips, playing cards, orders for gasoline, dry cleaning and laundry, compacts, wallets, stationery, golf balls, ham bacon, etc.

A four-piece orchestra to arrive at 7:30 p.m. will furnish music for dancing. Everyone is invited.

Catholic Women Plan Rummage, Food Sale June 13, 14

Friday and Saturday, June 13 and 14, have been set as the dates for a Catholic Altar Society sponsored rummage and food sale.

Church women and their friends are asked to check their wardrobes now for possibilities for the rummage sale. Men's, women's and children's clothing as well as household articles will be very acceptable, according to Mrs. Guy Felton, Altar Society president, who also asks donations of pies, cookies, case, serole dishes and other fare for the food sale.
