High School PTA First Fall Meeting Set For October 7

The regular monthly meeting of Torrance high school P.T.A. will be called to order in the school library Tuesday Oct. 7 at 2:30 p.m., by Mrs. A. C. Turner, president. This meeting will be a get-acquainted meeting for faculty and parents. A special invitation is extended to all new parents.

Speakers at this meeting will be Mr. Lloyd W. Waller, principal of Torrance high school and Mr. William H. Clinkenbeard, principal of seventh and eighth grades. Their topic will be "Surveying the Ground," October P.T.A. theme.

"We can support our schools by becoming active members in our local Parent Teachers Association," is Mrs. Turner's recommendation for a successful annual membership campaign.

Torrance Musicians Are Entertained By Noted Musicians

Kathryne Buffington and Nadine Nielol were among 30 musicians entertained in the home of Dr. Guy Maier in Santa Monica Sunday evening when Dr. Maier and his wife Lois, noted pianists, entertained with duopiano numbers and presented the distinguished pianist, Leonard Pennario, who played a magnificent program.

Leonard Pennario is piano soloist on the Kraft Music Hall program. He has played many fine programs, and is one of the most outstanding and remarkable pianists in the world today.

Dr. Guy Maier is the distinguished editor of the Pianist's Page in the Etude Music Magazine. He and Mrs. Maier will present a program at the Wilshire Ebell club in November. Mrs. Buffington and her duopiano groups are planning to attend this fine duopiano program.

HIGH SCHOOL P. T. A. INITIAL BOARD MEET REPORTED; PLANS FOR YEAR ARE OUTLINED

The home of Mrs. William E. Bowen was an attractive setting for a luncheon Wednesday afternoon when members of the executive board of Torrance high school P.T.A. were entertained.

Covers were arranged for the president, Mrs. A. C. Turner and Mmes. George E. Baer, T. Browning, John Spiller and Torrance high school faculty members, Miss Harriett H. Hardy, dean of girls and Mrs. Vivian Markham, school nurse.

Guest speaker at the informal meeting was the newly-appointed Y.M.C.A. executive secretary, Milton Isbell, who asked the cooperation of the women in reorganizing Tartar Town, high school students' recreation center. Isbell expressed a desire to have the activity more closely related to the school.

Ratification of the following appointees ensued: Mmes. G. C. Vandeventer, auditor; J. E. Popovich, courtesy and J. O. Kasten, magazines.

Formation of a Torrance P.T.A. council was discussed with the recommendation of the board that such council be formed.

Following the adoption of a budget for the year and plans for a rummage sale set for Nov. 14 and 15, the meeting adjourned.

The first general meeting of the year will be held in the high school auditorium at 2:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 9. A reception for faculty members will be held at the conclusion of the business meeting.

Attending First District P.T.A. Round Table meeting in Santa Monica Thursday were Mmes. A. C. Turner, J. Spiller, T. Browning and G. E. Baer.

NEWS OF WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

The regular meeting of Torrance Chapter, No. 44, Women of the Moose, Wednesday evening in Moose hall, was well attended. Mrs. Marilyn Harris, sponsored by Senior Regent Ila Mae Ambach, was initiated. Her advent into the organization marks three generations of one family in this chapter.

In accordance with the national policy of Women of the Moose that each chapter sponsor a student nurse, Miss Glee Bell of Inglewood was voted as the Torrance group's protegee. She will be the recipient of a monthly check as well as lovely personal gifts presented during the year. Miss Bell and her twin sister recently entered Los Angeles County General hospital for training.

With interest in the monthly card parties increasing noticeably, last night's party was a decided success. Lovely handmade prizes are partially responsible for the success of the affairs, it is felt. The drawing
