A. H. BARTLETTS RENEW MARRIAGE VOWS AT 40th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

At a surprise party Saturday evening Mr. A. H. Bartlett, City Clerk for 25 years, and Mrs. Bartlett for 25 years, and Mrs. Bartlett were honored on their 40th wedding anniversary. Host and hostess for the event were the Bartletts' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. McArthur.

An unusual feature of the evening was the renewal of their vows by Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett in a ceremony conducted by the Rev. B. F. Lingenfelter. Best man and matron of honor for the nostalgic occasion were Fay L. Parks and Addie W. Parks. Her son-in-law "gave the bride away."

White satin bows were tied around the decorations of large bouquets of white and purple asters. Mrs. Parks sang a song.

Visitors from out-of-town were Mrs. Connie Wetzel, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hammel, Hermosa Beach; Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Voisinet, Inglewood and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Young, Santa Ana.

ELDON PEERS HERE
Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Peef and children arrived this week from Portland, Ore., to make their home here. Temporarily they will remain at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Peef, 1328 Astor ave.

TO NEW HOME
Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Dodd, and daughter Carolyn, of 2363 Torrance Blvd., left this week to make their home in Acton, near Palmdale. Mr. and Mrs. Dodd will engage in business in their new location.
